'Mylar' Price Reduced Again

Volume, Efficiency Help the Customer

Reduction in price of several types of "Mylar" polyester film, manufactured here by E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., was announced today by Lloyd Horning, local accounting superintendent.

Horning said this is the sixth consecutive price reduction since the start of commercial production here in 1954.

The price reductions were made possible by growing volume and improved manufacturing efficiencies, Horning reported. He added that it is not possible to reduce price of other types of "Mylar" at this time because of higher manufacturing costs.

Type C "Mylar", in 25 and 35 gauges, was reduced 25 cents a pound and in 75 gauge, was reduced 15 cents a pound. These films are used primarily as a dielectric in capacitors. In addition, 55C is used as a release sheet for roll leaf.

Type A "Mylar", in 50 gauge, was reduced 20 cents a pound, and in 300, 500, 750, and 1000 gauges, was reduced 25 cents a pound. Major uses for 50A include typewriter ribbons, surfacing for acoustical tile, stationery supplies, and as a surfacing material in laminations with other flexible materials.

Type 300A is used in wire and cable insulation, motor phase insulation, and for drafting film. Applications for types 500A, 750A, and 1000A include electric motor insulation and spring roll shelving.

The current reductions bring the price of "Mylar" in the range of $1.35 to $3.65 a pound.

Paulling Judge's Eligibility Hit

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy asked the Ohio Supreme Court today to oust Paulling County Common Pleas Judge J. Gareth Hitchcock, who defeated Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's appointee in the Nov. 8 election.

The attorney general alleged that Hitchcock was unqualified for lack of a year's residence in Ohio. He made the claim in a quo warrant to action seeking to require Hitchcock to show by what right he occupies the bench.

Hitchcock, a Republican, defeated Democrat Ferd Pickens, former Columbus utilities director, for the unexpired term of Judge Harvey Hyman, who resigned. DiSalle appointed Pickens last February to serve until a successor was elected Nov. 8.

Pickens was nominated to oppose Wilmer Rekow, Paulling County Republican chairman, who later withdrew. The county GOP leaders then picked Hitchcock to oppose Pickens.

McElroy said Hitchcock went to Paulling from Pittsburgh last fall. At the time of his appointment last February, the question was raised as to whether Pickens was a qualified resident of Paulling County. But he said he had taken a room in Antwerp 40 days prior to the appointment. He is a native of Circleville.

N&W, Nickel Plate, Wabash Railroads Talk about Merger

NEW YORK (AP)—A single railroad which would stretch from the Atlantic Ocean to the wide Missouri was outlined in detail Wednesday.

The road would result from merging the Norfolk & Western Railway, the Nickel Plate Road and the Wabash Railroad.

Previously, a Nickel Plate and N&W merger was under discussion. Bringing the Wabash into it, a new development, meant the proposed road would run farther west than any other Atlantic rail.

It would link the corn fields of central Iowa with the coal port along the Virginia coast.

The proposed road was described Wednesday by Stuart Saunders, president of the Norfolk & Western. Heads of the other lines concurred in the announcement.

Also involved is the Sandusky line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, running 111 miles between Columbus and Sandusky, Ohio. This would be purchased by the N&W for $27 million cash to provide a link with the Nickel Plate.

The new road would have 7,400 miles of road and combined assets of about $1.7 billion. This would leave it short of the Pennsylvania, with consolidated assets of $2.9 billion and the New York Central, with consolidated assets of $2.5 billion.

Saunders said preparations are being made for formal presentation "at the earliest possible date" of the plans to stockholders and the Interstate Commerce Commission for approval.

Terms of the N&W-Nickel Plate merger have been announced—exchange of one Nickel Plate share for 45 shares of N&W.

The Wabash would be leased by the N&W for 50 years. The Wabash would have an option to exchange at any time after six years all its common stock ($98.186 shares) for 675,000 shares of N&W common stock.

This exchange would be mandatory at termination of the lease, if not done before that. More than 99 per cent of the Wabash common is owned by the Pennsylvania.

The road would operate in 14 states and touch such important cities as Cincinnati, Norfolk, Chicago, Omaha, Detroit, Buffalo, St. Louis, Kansas City, Des Moines, Cleveland and Indianapolis.

"I am deeply grateful for the opportunity for public service which the state has given me," O'Neill said from the bench.

After administering the oath, Weygant said:

"Judge O'Neill, I now have the honor to be the first to address you a judge after you have assumed the solemn oath and robe of a member of the Supreme Court of Ohio . . .

"You become the 124th person to enjoy the high distinction of a position on this venerable tribunal which was established more than a century and a half ago when Ohio became a state. . . . You are the 30th with whom I have served here. . . .

"Your friends and we, your new associates, wish for you the enduring satisfaction that can come alone from a difficult and important duty faithfully discharged."

Ohio Population Set Officially: 9,706,397

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau says Ohio's official 1960 population is 9,706,397—a gain of 22.1 per cent over 1950's total of 7,946,627. The count, now official, for some of Ohio's cities includes: Cleveland, 876,050; Akron, 290,351; Canton, 113,631; Cincinnati, 502,550; Columbus, 475,316; Dayton, 262,332; Toledo, 318,003; and Youngstown, 166,689.

McElroy said Hitchcock went to Paulling from Pittsburgh last fall. At the time of his appointment last February, the question was raised as to whether Pickens was a qualified resident of Paulling County. ## Little People Gather for Small Talk

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Little people can handle big jobs. That's the theme of a convention that by all odds is one of the zaniest this gambling resort has seen.

Bartenders, blackjack dealers and bellboys are baffled by the comings and goings of 300 men and women "no bigger'n a minute," as one said.

It's the first annual convention of the National Association of Little People of America.

"Our organization includes both midgets and dwarfs," said Bob Brower, 33, a Des Moines, Iowa, supermarket operator. "We prefer to be called little people."

And little they are. At 4-10, Bob is the tallest of a group that scales down to 2-11. That's hip-high to a midgeting man and a clean six inches above a conventional office desk. You'd never spot the littlest chap behind a waste basket. Bob's wife, Marcella, a dancer, is 4-1½.

Always keeping an eye out for the house, the Hacienda Hotel built ramps and steps for its pint-size guests at the dice tables and other games of chance.

The little people don't mind gaging it up. They posed with eight in a bed. They welcomed the platforms around the take-ye-money gadgets with which this gambling center abounds.

But with their laughs, the delegates are serious about some things. That's why they're here.

"We want to make the big people understand that little people think the same as they do," one

Soviets Launch 3rd Space Ship Into Orbit

2 Dogs Given Rides In Latest Vehicle Zipping around Earth

MOSCOW (AP)—A third Soviet space ship carrying animal passengers was launched into orbit today. The Russians said the vehicle was shot aloft for research.

Two dogs were aboard the 5-ton orbiting vehicle, Tass said. There was no word on whether Soviet scientists will try to bring either the dogs or the ship back to earth. Two canine passengers were returned from orbit in August. Laika, the first Soviet space dog sent up two years ago, perished in space.

The announced aims of today's vehicle, its equipment and even its weight was matched closely by the August space flight.

A series of musical chimes, traditional for important announcements here, preceded a midday broadcast of the space-flight communique over Radio Moscow. The announcement also was carried in the overseas service of the Soviet news agency Tass.

The 5-ton vehicle, Tass said, also carried other animals in sets and plants for Soviet scientists to study their condition via radio-television and other telemetering devices aboard. Its exact weight—not counting the carrier rocket that boosted into final orbit—was listed at 10,037 pounds.

The dogs, latest in a series of Soviet canine space travelers starting with the space-dog Laika, were named Pchelka (Little Bee) and Mushka (Little Fly).

It was described as the "third space ship" by Tass.

The launching was the first space exploit announced by the Soviet Union since Aug. 21 when the U.S.S.R. disclosed it had sent a 4½-ton space ship into orbit and safely recovered its cargo of two dogs and some rats, mice, flies and plants.

The two dogs, Belka and Strelka were later exhibited in their space suits before newsmen in Moscow. The Soviets said the animals were catapulted from the space ship and were landed gently in a capsule at a speed of 13 to 18 miles per hour.

The first Soviet space ship was put into orbit last May 15.

Altogether the Soviet Union has placed seven satellites in orbit around the earth since she opened the space age 38 months ago. In addition it has a cosmic payload orbiting the sun.

(The United States has orbited nearly 30 earth satellites and two satellites around the sun.)

In Washington a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the agency could not make any official comment on the Soviet launch until it received more details. But he added that on first glance the Soviet project "does not look like anything new."

Hollywood Disagrees With Ban by Church

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—"We do not agree that Hollywood has made a 'bold and unprecedented' departure from previously accepted moral standards," says the Association of Motion Picture Producers.

The association commented Wednesday on a statement issued in Washington in which a committee of bishops urged the 40 million U.S. Roman Catholics to stay away from movies not meeting acceptable standards.

Cuba Says Chunks of U.S. Rocket Shower on Hillside

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Military authorities at Holguin, in eastern Cuba, said early today parts of a U. S. space rocket fell near the city Wednesday afternoon. There was no damage.

A military headquarters spokesman reached by telephone from Havana said rocket fragments, some weighing as much as 40 pounds, fell on a hillside about 10 miles from the center of the city Cuba's third largest, at about 3 p. m.

Farmers reported the incident to authorities. They said the fragments looked like pieces of a falling airplane.

Holguin lies near the north shore of easternmost Oriente Province, roughly 500 miles from Havana.

A two-headed U. S. space rocket was fired from Cape Canaveral, Fla., at 2:50 p. m. The rocket was later destroyed in flight.

A spokesman for the semi-official newspaper Revolution said markings on the fragments which fell clearly identified them as made in the United States.

Sources at Cape Canaveral were concerned lest the rocket fall on Cuban soil and provide a new occasion for Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government to assail the United States for "aggression" against Cuba.

The Cuban news agency said rocket debris rained on several settlements around Holguin, causing "loud explosions and great alarm."

The incident seemed likely to provide ammunition for fresh attacks on the United States by Cuba in either the United Nations, or the Organization of American States, and possibly in both.

An aide for the U.S. Defense Department said he could not exclude the possibility that remnants of the rocket might have fallen as the Cubans reported.

"We certainly are concerned about it," he said, "and we are investigating it further."

At Cape Canaveral, Fla., authorities declined comment.

The 80-foot Thor-Able-Star rocket was destroyed by the range safety officer when a malfunction developed in flight. The rocket was to boost two satellites into orbit—the 203-pound Transit III-a navigation satellite, and a 40-pound radiation study sphere carried as a hitchhiker.

The Thor-Able-Star was blown up less than three minutes after launch, out of range of ground observers. But the Defense Department delayed 40 minutes before reporting that the satellites failed to achieve orbit. It was another hour and 20 minutes before it was announced the rocket had been deliberately destroyed.

Newsman were frustrated in attempts to learn the reason for the delay.

At a prelaunch press briefing, reporters had questioned launch authorities extensively about the rocket's intended path over Cuba and the possibility of it landing there in case of trouble. They ducked the questions.

Only one other American rocket has flown over Cuba. That was another Thor-Able-Star which lofted a pair of satellites into successful orbit last June. Sources reported then that the countdown was delayed twice while launch officials and State Department representatives conferred by phone on the reliability of the rocket.

Two Chillicotheans Nabbed, Held for Safe-Cracking Jobs

Two safe-cracking jobs committed in Pickaway County last month have been solved, Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff announced today.

Sheriff Radcliff said the arrest of two Chillicothe men probably will solve several safe jobs in other areas of Ohio. One of the suspects was taken into custody Saturday and the other yesterday.

Held here for further investigation are Calvin Leo Moss, 24, and Danny Lee Tackett, 22. The sheriff said Moss has admitted his part in the two Pickaway County safe burglaries. He said Tackett has made no admission.

The Chillicothe men will face accusations of "peeling" a safe at the Ivan Hill Equipment and Implement Co. in Derby on Nov. 2, and pulling a similar job at the Ashville Lumber Co. on Nov. 4. The sheriff's department launched an extensive investigation following the burglaries and probed the cases daily until this week.

DEPUTY Dwight Radcliff said approximately $328 was taken in the Hill entry. He said $200 was missing from the Ashville safe.

According to Sheriff Radcliff, Moss and Tackett possibly are connected with safe jobs in neighboring and distant counties. These burglaries have been the focal point for constant investigations by Ohio Sheriffs.

Sheriff Radcliff received key tips on the safe jobs several weeks ago prior to an attack of illness which eventually sent him to the hospital for surgery. His entire staff of deputies then tackled the case in an effort to solve it.

The sheriff said valuable aid came from the London Bureau of Criminal Investigation, the Chillicothe Police Department, local police and auxiliary deputies. He said all the departments helped in piecing evidence together.

Deputy Radcliff and Auxiliary Deputy Donald Rolfe worked in close cooperation with Chillicothe Police who had Moss, Tackett and other members of an alleged gang under surveillance.

Tackett was taken into custody several days ago by Deputy Radcliff, but later released. He was picked up again yesterday.

MOSS was apprehended Saturday night by Deputy Radcliff, Rolfe and Chillicothe Police Captain Robert Houser. Radcliff said he admitted his part in the strong-box robberies after interrogation here.

Earlier this week two other Chillicothe men were cited into Circleville Municipal Court on charges of burglarizing Win-fough's store at Five Points on charges filed by Deputy Charles Felkey. The accusations were against James Manson, 25, and Ervin Himelrick, 22. Each was bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury under $1,500 bond.

Sheriff Radcliff said Himelrick and Manson are suspected of belonging to the same gang as Moss and Tackett. He said additional persons also may be involved.

The sheriff said charges will be filed against Moss and Tackett within the next few days.

The two latest arrests bring to 13 the number of felony apprehensions made in November by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department. The sheriff said it probably is a new record here for one month.

All but Tackett and Moss have been arraigned. Most of the suspects have been bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury which will convene in January.

U.N. Awaits Kennedy Views

Assembly To Recess Until Inauguration

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The General Assembly is planning an unusual winter recess to await the views of the new Kennedy administration in Washington.

The assembly, still in sort of a state of shock since Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's table-thumping antics at the start of this session, has not taken action on a single major issue in the past two months. It has given up hope of ending its business on the target date of Dec. 17.

Most delegates feel that the United States cannot make any hard decisions until Sen. John F. Kennedy takes over the presidency. They do not want the 99-nation assembly to reconvene before the middle of February.

Many hope that with a new U.S. president not bound by the commitments of the Eisenhower administration, the Soviet Union may take a more conciliatory position on its major conflicts with the United States.

So far the major accomplishments of the assembly have been the perennial decision to shelve Communist China's bid for membership and a seat the Congo Delegation backing President Joseph Kasavubu.

But other debates have so bogged down the schedule that night and Saturday meetings are set in the Trusteeship Committee and the assembly itself in a drive to clean up a bulging agenda of colonial issues before the recess in mid-December.

Still coming up for discussion are acrimonious debates on Hungary and Tibet, and resolutions by the Soviet Union and Cuba accusing the United States of aggression.

New York Paper Says Campaign To Open Today

Investigation Slated To 'Go Limit' toward Erasing Kennedy Win

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune reported the Republican party will announce today a major undertaking to investigate alleged vote frauds in the presidential election.

The newspaper, in a dispatch from Washington by Robert J. Donovan, said Sen. Thruston B. Morton, Republican national chairman, will announce a committee of high party officials from all sections of the country.

The Herald Tribune story continued: "Sen. Morton himself will be chairman of the committee, and he will soon set out to visit states, including New Jersey, Texas and Illinois, where President-elect John F. Kennedy's lead has been challenged by Republicans on grounds of fraud, stolen votes and so on.

"Among other things, the committee will be charged with raising funds for legal work and investigation. As a starter, the Republican National Committee has already received $15,000 in contributions.

The newspaper said that Republicans sent investigators into eight states after the election. It continued: "Their preliminary reports are now in and on the basis of the findings, the decision was made to 'go the limit' in challenging Sen. Kennedy's election."

The final action was taken Wednesday at a secret meeting between Morton and Leonard W. Hall, former Republican national chairman who was Vice President Richard M. Nixon's campaign manager, the Herald Tribune said.

Will a recheck of ballots in Chicago have any effect on the election?

That question loomed larger today in the wake of Gov. William G. Stratton's statement that the

'1, 2 and 3' Rob Couple In West Jeff

WEST JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP)—A prominent West Jefferson druggist and his wife hurried to police headquarters shortly before midnight and told of being robbed of about $10,000 by three hooded gunmen.

Merrill Mellott, 73, and his wife Beth, 65, said the trio—who referred to each other as "one," "two" and "three"—were waiting at the Mellott home when the couple arrived about 10 p.m. They took drugstore receipts and telephone bill collection money and Mrs. Mellott's purse, then forced Mellott to open a safe in the home.

The couple said the three wore black hoods and gloves, carried revolvers and kept the house blacked out throughout the robbery, relying on flashlights. They tied the Mellotts with rope and masking tape before departing. Mellott freed himself and his wife about an hour later.

The men also called one another "Ernie" and "Howard," the couple said.

Mellott is well-known in central Ohio political circles and was elected a delegate to the 1960 Republican Convention.

Dem Party Chief Plans To Resign

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., announced today he will resign as Democratic national chairman effective Jan. 20—inauguration day—or the next day.

Jackson made the announcement after a 20 minute conference with President-elect John F. Kennedy in the Senate Office Building.

He recalled that in accepting the chairmanship at the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles, he had said he planned to serve only until shortly after the election.

Ohio Population Set Officially: 9,706,397

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau says Ohio's official 1960 population is 9,706,397—a gain of 22.1 per cent over 1950's total of 7,946,627. The count, now official, for some of Ohio's cities included: Cleveland, 876,050; Akron, 290,351; Canton, 113,631; Cincinnati, 502,550; Columbus, 475,316; Dayton, 262,332; Toledo, 318,003; and Youngstown, 166,689.

2 Dogs Given Rides In Latest Vehicle Zipping around Earth

MOSCOW (AP)—A third Soviet space ship carrying animal passengers was launched into orbit today. The Russians said the vehicle was shot aloft for research.

Two dogs were aboard the 5-ton orbiting vehicle, Tass said. There was no word on whether Soviet scientists will try to bring either the dogs or the ship back to earth. Two canine passengers were returned from orbit in August. Laika, the first Soviet space dog sent up two years ago, perished in space.

The announced aims of today's vehicle, its equipment and even its weight was matched closely by the August space flight.

A series of musical chimes, traditional for important announcements here, preceded a midday broadcast of the space-fight communique over Radio Moscow. The announcement also was carried in the overseas service of the Soviet news agency Tass.

The 5-ton vehicle, Tass said, also carried other animals in insects and plants for Soviet scientists to study their condition via radio-television and other telemetering devices aboard. Its exact weight—not counting the carrier rocket that boosted into final orbit—was listed at 10,037 pounds.

The dogs, latest in a series of Soviet canine space travelers starting with the space-dog Laika, were named Pchelka (Little Bee) and Mushka (Little Fly).

It was described as the "third space ship" by Tass.

The launching was the first space exploit announced by the Soviet Union since Aug. 21 when the U.S.S.R. disclosed it had sent a 4½-ton space ship into orbit and safely recovered its cargo of two dogs and some rats, mice, flies and plants.

The two dogs, Belka and Strelka were later exhibited in their space suits before newsmen in Moscow. The Soviets said the animals were catapulted from the space ship and were landed gently in a capsule at a speed of 13 to 18 miles per hour.

The first Soviet space ship was put into orbit last May 15.

Altogether the Soviet Union has placed seven satellites in orbit around the earth since she opened the space age 28 months ago. In addition it has a cosmic payload orbiting the sun.

(The United States has orbited nearly 30 earth satellites and two satellites around the sun.

Cuba Says Chunks of U.S. Rocket Shower on Hillside

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Military authorities at Holguin, in eastern Cuba, said early today parts of a U. S. space rocket fell near the city Wednesday afternoon. There was no damage.

A military headquarters spokesman reached by telephone from Havana said rocket fragments, some weighing as much as 40 pounds, fell on a hillside about 10 miles from the center of the city Cuba's third largest, at about 3 p. m.

Farmers reported the incident to authorities. They said the fragments looked like pieces of a falling airplane.

Holguin lies near the north shore of easternmost Oriente Province, roughly 500 miles from Havana.

A two-headed U. S. space rocket was fired from Cape Canaveral, Fla., at 2:50 p. m. The rocket was later destroyed in flight.

A spokesman for the semi-official newspaper Revolution said markings on the fragments which fell clearly identified them as made in the United States.

Sources at Cape Canaveral were concerned lest the rocket fall on Cuban soil and provide a new occasion for Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government to assail the United States for "aggression" against Cuba.

The Cuban news agency said rocket debris rained on several settlements around Holguin, causing "loud explosions and great alarm."

The incident seemed likely to provide ammunition for fresh attacks on the United States by Cuba in either the United Nations, or the Organization of American States, and possibly in both.

An aide for the U. S. Defense Department said he could not exclude the possibility that remnants of the rocket might have fallen as the Cubans reported.

"We certainly are concerned about it," he said, "and we are investigating it further."

At Cape Canaveral, Fla., authorities declined comment.

The 80-foot Thor-Able-Star rocket was destroyed by the range safety officer when a malfunction developed in flight. The rocket was to boost two satellites into orbit—the 203-pound Transit III-A navigation satellite, and a 40-pound radiation-study sphere carried as a hitchhiker.

The Thor-Able-Star was blown up less than three minutes after launch, out of range of ground observers. But the Defense Department delayed 40 minutes before reporting that the satellites failed to achieve orbit. It was another hour and 20 minutes before it was announced the rocket had been deliberately destroyed.

Newsman were frustrated in attempts to learn the reason for the delay.

At a prelaunch press briefing, reporters had questioned launch authorities extensively about the rocket's intended path over Cuba and the possibility of it landing there in case of trouble. They ducked the questions.

Only one other American rocket has flown over Cuba. That was another Thor-Able-Star which lofted a pair of satellites into successful orbit last June. Sources reported then that the countdown was delayed twice while launch officials and State Department representatives conferred by phone on the reliability of the rocket.

The two latest arrests bring to 13 the number of felony apprehensions made in November by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department. The sheriff said it probably is a new record here for one month.

All but Tackett and Moss have been arraigned. Most of the suspects have been bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury which will convene in January.

The Chillicothe men will face accusations of "peeling" a safe at the Ivan Hill Equipment and Implement Co. in Derby on Nov. 2, and pulling a similar job at the Ashville Lumber Co. on Nov. 4. The sheriff's department launched an extensive investigation following the burglaries and probed the cases daily until this week.

DEPUTY Dwight Radcliff said approximately $328 was taken in the Hill entry. He said $200 was missing from the Ashville safe.

According to Sheriff Radcliff, Moss and Tackett possibly are connected with safe jobs in neighboring and distant counties. These burglaries have been the focal point for constant investigations by Ohio Sheriffs.

Sheriff Radcliff received key tips on the safe jobs several weeks ago prior to an attack of illness which eventually sent him to the hospital for surgery. His entire staff of deputies then tackled the case in an effort to solve it.

The sheriff said valuable aid came from the London Bureau of Criminal Investigation, the Chillicothe Police Department, local police and auxiliary deputies. He said all the departments helped in piecing evidence together.

Deputy Radcliff and Auxiliary Deputy Donald Rolfe worked in close cooperation with Chillicothe Police who had Moss, Tackett and other members of an alleged gang under surveillance.

Tackett was taken into custody several days ago by Deputy Radcliff, but later released. He was picked up again yesterday.

MOSS was apprehended Saturday night by Deputy Radcliff, Rolfe and Chillicothe Police Captain Robert Houser. Radcliff said he admitted his part in the strong-box robberies after interrogation here.

Earlier this week two other Chillicothe men were cited into Circleville Municipal Court on charges of burglarizing Winfough's store at Five Points on charges filed by Deputy Charles Felkey. The accusations were against James Manson, 25, and Ervin Himelrick, 22. Each was bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury under $1,500 bond.

Sheriff Radcliff said Himelrick and Manson are suspected of belonging to the same gang as Moss and Tackett. He said additional persons also may be involved.

Two Chillicotheans Nabbed, Held for Safe-Cracking Jobs

Two safe-cracking jobs committed in Pickaway County last month have been solved, Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff announced today.

Sheriff Radcliff said the arrest of two Chillicothe men probably will solve several safe jobs in other areas of Ohio. One of the suspects was taken into custody Saturday and the other yesterday.

Held here for further investigation are Calvin Leo Moss, 24, and Danny Lee Tackett, 22. The sheriff said Moss has admitted his part in the two Pickaway County safe burglaries. He said Tackett has made no admission.

Investigation Slated To 'Go Limit' toward Erasing Kennedy Win

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune reported the Republican party will announce today a major undertaking to investigate alleged vote frauds in the presidential election.

The newspaper, in a dispatch from Washington by Robert J. Donovan, said Sen. Thurston B. Morton, Republican national chairman, will announce a committee of high party officials from all sections of the country.

The Herald Tribune story continued: "Sen. Morton himself will be chairman of the committee, and he will soon set out to visit states, including New Jersey, Texas and Illinois, where President-elect John F. Kennedy's lead has been challenged by Republicans on grounds of fraud, stolen votes and so on."

"Among other things, the committee will be charged with raising funds for legal work and investigation. As a starter, the Republican National Committee has already received $15,000 in contributions."

The newspaper said that Republicans sent investigators into eight states after the election. It continued: "Their preliminary reports are now in and on the basis of the findings, the decision was made to 'go the limit' in challenging Sen. Kennedy's election."

The final action was taken Wednesday at a secret meeting between Morton and Leonard W. Hall, former Republican national chairman who was Vice President Richard M. Nixon's campaign manager, the Herald Tribune said.

Will a reckoning of ballots in Chicago have any effect on the election?

That question loomed larger today in the wake of Gov. William G. Stratton's statement that the

'Soapy' Williams Is Named Assistant State Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy today picked Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan to be assistant secretary of state for African affairs. Kennedy called the job second in importance to no other position in the new administration.

It was his first major appointment outside of his White House staff.

Speculation has been raised as to whether a Negro might receive the post.

Kennedy made the announcement on the doorstep of his Georgetown home with Williams standing at his side. They had conferred at a breakfast meeting.

Williams, who has served six terms, will retire as governor of Michigan Jan. 1.

The announcement bore out advance indications that Kennedy had passed the talking stage and was at the point of making actual official assignments.

In addition to Williams, he had appointments today with Robert A. Lovett, former secretary of Defense; Connecticut's Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff, and Rep. Stuart L. Udall, D-Ariz. All have figured in Cabinet and sub-Cabinet talks.

Kennedy and Williams stood without topcoats or hats in freezing weather while Kennedy read a statement.

"I have asked Gov. Williams to accept a position of responsibility second to none in the new administration — assistant secretary of state for Africa," he said.

"African countries make up one quarter of the nations in the General Assembly of the United Nations. The continent of Africa is now a giant testing ground to determine whether freedom can be maintained in conditions where great masses of people live on the marginal edge of existence, struggling against illiteracy, disease, malnutrition and civil division."

Kennedy went on to say that the fate of Africa now is the object of "a giant Communist offensive," and that its future "will affect vitally the security of every citizen of the United States."

When Kennedy concluded his statement, Williams read one saying he is ready to serve the United States "wherever and in whatever capacity I can best serve and I am called upon to serve."

Williams returned Monday from a tour of Argentina and Brazil with a number of other governors.

New Orleans Women Jump Cleric's Son

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Women screaming insults—manhandled a university student today in front of integrated William Frantz School, saying the youth led recent downtown sit-in demonstrations.

"Jew, bastard, nigger lover," they screamed as they shoved and kicked Sydney Goldfinch, son of a Protestant minister.

Police rescued him. All the way to a police car, the women taunted. "I hope you have a bunch of mulatto grandchildren," one yelled.

Police rescued George Dreyfus, a professor of law at Louisiana State University and President of the American Civil Liberties Union in Louisiana.

Three other youths accompanied Goldfinch and received police protection. Goldfinch is a Tulane University student.

This small crack in a nearly total boycott came in the wake of a federal court refusal to abandon integration in New Orleans.

The Rev. Lloyd Foreman, a Methodist clergyman, evaded the picketing and jeering women at William Frantz. He took the three children in the back door.

When pickets ran screaming around the building, the one Negro girl who attends William Frantz walked into the front door.

Mrs. James Gabrielle brought her daughter Yolanda, into William Frantz early, avoiding the disturbance that brought police protection earlier.

This put four white children and one Negro girl inside the school today. Only the Foreman and Gabrielle girls entered the school with the Negro girl Wednesday.

New York Paper

Illinois Electoral Board may not certify the state's 27 Democratic electors if "strong and tangible" evidence of vote frauds is presented.

Stratton, a Republican, is chairman of the GOP-dominated board.

The board's function is to canvass the vote reports from the state's 102 counties and make an official proclamation of the results.

Reports from the 102 counties show President-elect John F. Kennedy is entitled to the electoral votes on the basis of his defeat of Richard M. Nixon by 8,849 votes.

Across the nation, Kennedy has 300 electoral votes. If the 27 from Illinois were withheld, he still would have 273—four more than the 269 required. If there are no shifts elsewhere.

Stratton, who lost in his bid for re-election, made his statement Wednesday at a news conference in Springfield. The board is expected to meet there next week. Unless there is a hitch, the electoral votes will be cast there Dec. 19.

The Chicago Board of Election Commissioners went into its third day of checking 486,000 paper ballots cast in 863 precincts in the Nov. 8 election.

In the first two days, the board rechecked ballots from only five precincts. There was a net gain of 23 votes for Nixon and a net loss of seven for state's atty. Benjamin Adamowski.

Adamowski, a Republican, lost a bid for re-election to Democrat Daniel Ward by 26,000 votes. The recheck was requested in behalf of Adamowski.

The Democratic-controlled board has ruled that the only official business is a second look at Adamowski's votes. GOP watchers are scanning the Nixon vote anyway.

The board is going through what is known as a "discovery" procedure. It can form the basis for a suit for a recount.

Cold Grips Major Part Of Nation

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Coldest weather of the season chilled the major part of the nation today.

It was bitter cold in northern midwest areas and freezing in Dixie.

Temperatures plunged to 18 degrees below in Aberdeen, S.D. and in Gainesville, in northwest Florida, the mercury dipped to 32—the freezing mark—far below seasonal levels.

Even Miami felt some of the cool morning air as the mercury hit 60 and many Miamians slept under blankets for the first time this fall. The mercury climbed into the low 80s Wednesday.

Skies cleared and winds diminished in the icy air across most sections from the Rockies to the Midwest. But more snow and strong winds hit areas in the Great Lakes, the upper Ohio Valley, Western New York and north-eastward into Vermont.

The season's first snow storm, which whipped across the great plains and the Midwest into the Northeast, dumped more than 18 inches of snow in the Buffalo, N.Y. area and more appeared on the way.

The stormy cold weather was blamed for at least 15 deaths this week. Included were six in New York state (five in the Buffalo area) and six in the Midwest. Most of the deaths were attributed to heart attacks induced by over exertion shoveling snow or in traffic accidents on ice-slicked highways.

Unlimited Long-Distance Calls at Monthly Rate Eyed

NEW YORK (AP)—A sweeping change in long-distance telephone service is being readied for the near future. In effect, it will mean extension of the local or area calling concept—unlimited long-distance calls at a flat monthly rate.

The giant bell system of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. is working on such a long-distance zone calling idea and hopes to have it ready for submission to the Federal Communications Commission in two weeks.

AT&T declines to elaborate on details of long-distance zone calling until the proposal is actually filed. "We are absolutely prohibited from discussing any details," a spokesman said.

However, the plan under consideration would permit a New York telephone subscriber, for example, to buy a service for a fixed monthly rate that would permit an unlimited number of calls to say, Chicago. Or if he estimates he will be making 25 calls to Chicago monthly, he would be able to buy a service at a specified fee for possibly 30 three-minute calls to that city or any other phone number in the same zone.

The new system would divide the country into six zones. Customers could buy service to any one or combination of zones or even all six. For a specified fee that may run under $3,000 a month for one telephone line, a subscriber could make an unlimited number of three-minute calls to anywhere in the country. Overtime calls would be charged for on a time talked basis.

'Soapy' Williams Is Named Assistant State Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy today picked Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan to be assistant secretary of state for African affairs.

Kennedy called the job second in importance to no other position in the new administration.

It was his first major appointment outside of his White House staff.

Speculation has been raised as to whether a Negro might receive the post.

Kennedy made the announcement on the doorstep of his Georgetown home with Williams standing at his side. They had conferred at a breakfast meeting.

Williams, who has served six terms, will retire as governor of Michigan Jan. 1.

The announcement bore out advance indications that Kennedy had passed the talking stage and was at the point of making actual official assignments.

In addition to Williams, he had appointments today with Robert A. Lovett, former secretary of Defense; Connecticut's Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff, and Rep. Stuart L. Udall, D-Ariz. All have figured in Cabinet and sub-Cabinet talks.

Kennedy and Williams stood without topcoats or hats in freezing weather while Kennedy read a statement.

"I have asked Gov. Williams to accept a position of responsibility second to none in the new administration — assistant secretary of state for Africa," he said.

"African countries make up one quarter of the nations in the General Assembly of the United Nations. The continent of Africa is now a giant testing ground to determine whether freedom can be maintained in conditions where great masses of people live on the marginal edge of existence, struggling against illiteracy, disease, malnutrition and civil division."

Kennedy went on to say that the fate of Africa now is the object of "a giant Communist offensive," and that its future "will affect vitally the security of every citizen of the United States."

When Kennedy concluded his statement, Williams read one saying he is ready to serve the United States "wherever and in whatever capacity I can best serve and I am called upon to serve."

Williams returned Monday from a tour of Argentina and Brazil with a number of other governors.

New Orleans Women Jump Cleric's Son

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Women — screaming insults—manhandled a university student today in front of integrated William Frantz School, saying the youth led recent downtown sit-in demonstrations.

"Jew, bastard, nigger lover," they screamed as they shoved and kicked Sydney Goldfinch, son of a Protestant minister.

Police rescued him.

All the way to a police car, the women taunted. "I hope you have a bunch of mulatto grandchildren," one yelled.

Police rescued George Dreyfus, a professor of law at Louisiana State University and President of the American Civil Liberties Union in Louisiana.

Three other youths accompanied Goldfinch and received police protection. Goldfinch is a Tulane University student.

This small crack in a nearly total boycott came in the wake of a federal court refusal to abandon integration in New Orleans.

The Rev. Lloyd Foreman, a Methodist clergyman, evaded the picketing and jeering women at William Frantz. He took the three children in the back door.

When pickets ran screaming around the building, the one Negro girl who attends William Frantz walked into the front door.

Mrs. James Gabrielle brought her daughter Yolanda, into William Frantz early, avoiding the disturbance that brought police protection earlier.

This put four white children and one Negro girl inside the school today. Only the Foreman and Gabrielle girls entered the school with the Negro girl Wednesday.

New York Paper

Illinois Electoral Board may not certify the state's 27 Democratic electors if "strong and tangible" evidence of vote frauds is presented.

Stratton, a Republican, is chairman of the GOP-dominated board.

The board's function is to canvass the vote reports from the state's 102 counties and make an official proclamation of the results.

Reports from the 102 counties show President-elect John F. Kennedy is entitled to the electoral votes on the basis of his defeat of Richard M. Nixon by 8,849 votes.

Across the nation, Kennedy has 300 electoral votes. If the 27 from Illinois were withheld, he still would have 273—four more than the 269 required. If there are no shifts elsewhere.

Stratton, who lost in his bid for re-election, made his statement Wednesday at a news conference in Springfield. The board is expected to meet there next week. Unless there is a hitch, the electoral votes will be cast there Dec. 19.

The Chicago Board of Election Commissioners went into its third day of checking 486,000 paper ballots cast in 863 precincts in the Nov. 8 election.

In the first two days, the board rechecked ballots from only five precincts. There was a net gain of 23 votes for Nixon and a net loss of seven for state's atty. Benjamin Adamowski.

Adamowski, a Republican, lost a bid for re-election to Democrat Daniel Ward by 26,000 votes. The recheck was requested in behalf of Adamowski. The Democratic-controlled board has ruled that the only official business is a second look at Adamowski's votes. GOP watchers are scanning the Nixon vote anyway.

The board is going through what is known as a "discovery" procedure. It can form the basis for a suit for a recount.

Coldest weather of the season chilled the major part of the nation today.

It was bitter cold in northern Midwest areas and freezing in Dixie.

Temperatures plunged to 18 degrees below in Aberdeen, S.D. and in Gainesville, in northwest Florida, the mercury dipped to 32—the freezing mark—far below seasonal levels.

Even Miami felt some of the cool morning air as the mercury hit 60 and many Miamians slept under blankets for the first time this fall. The mercury climbed into the low 80s Wednesday.

Skies cleared and winds diminished in the icy air across most sections from the Rockies to the Midwest. But more snow and strong winds hit areas in the Great Lakes, the upper Ohio Valley, Western New York and north-eastward into Vermont.

The season's first snow storm, which whipped across the great plains and the Midwest into the Northeast, dumped more than 18 inches of snow in the Buffalo, N.Y. area and more appeared on the way.

The stormy cold weather was blamed for at least 15 deaths this week. Included were six in New York state (five in the Buffalo area), three in the Cleveland district and six in the Midwest. Most of the deaths were attributed to heart attacks induced by over exertion shoveling snow or in traffic accidents on ice-slicked highways.

The agreement announced by Federal Mediator Clair Willmetts, provides for no immediate wage increase, but three-cent hourly increases one year from today. An additional five-cent hourly payment is earmarked for insurance, health and welfare, making the overall value of the two-year package about eight cents an hour Willmetts said.

Current average hourly rates are $2.25 for men and $1.69 for women. At the start of bargaining the association had proposed putting wages back to the 1957 level, while the union sought "a substantial increase."

Unlimited Long-Distance Calls at Monthly Rate Eyed

NEW YORK (AP)—A sweeping change in long-distance telephone service is being readied for the near future. In effect, it will mean extension of the local or area calling concept—unlimited long-distance calls at a flat monthly rate.

The giant bell system of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. is working on such a long-distance zone calling idea and hopes to have it ready for submission to the Federal Communications Commission in two weeks.

AT&T declines to elaborate on details of long-distance zone calling until the proposal is actually filed. "We are absolutely prohibited from discussing any details," a spokesman said.

The new system would divide the country into six zones. Customers could buy service to any one or combination of zones or even all six. For a specified fee that may run under $3,000 a month for one telephone line, a subscriber could make an unlimited number of three-minute calls to anywhere in the country. Overtime calls would be charged for on a time talked basis.

Whether the system would result in lower telephone bills remains uncertain.

TOKYO (AP)—The violent off-season Typhoon Ophelia, carrying 161-mile center winds, battered Pacific atolls today and headed for the Philippines.

All buildings on the tiny U.S. administered Ulithi atoll were reported destroyed, except for a concrete Coast Guard station.

The military newspaper Pacific Stars and Stripes reported from Guam that the Ulithi group, 400 miles away from Guam, was under two feet of water. None of the 16 U.S. Coast Guardsmen believed on the atoll were hurt, according to a radio report heard on the Marianas Islands the paper said. There was no word about the 450 natives.

Dr. G. D. Phillips Still 'Satisfactory'

Dr. G. D. Phillips, 624 Beverly Road, is still reported in "satisfactory" condition today by Berger Hospital officials.

Dr. Phillips suffered a heart attack November 16 at his office.

Since 1953, the Weather Bureau has called tropical storms by girls' names. The list for 1960 runs from Abby to Winny.

However, the plan under consideration would permit a New York telephone subscriber, for example, to buy a service for a fixed monthly rate that would permit an unlimited number of calls to say, Chicago. Or if he estimates he will be making 25 calls to Chicago monthly, he would be able to buy a service at a specified fee for possibly 30 three-minute calls to that city or any other phone number in the same zone.

The new system would divide the country into six zones. Customers could buy service to any one or combination of zones or even all six. For a specified fee that may run under $3,000 a month for one telephone line, a subscriber could make an unlimited number of three-minute calls to anywhere in the country. Overtime calls would be charged for on a time talked basis.

Whether the system would result in lower telephone bills remains uncertain.

Stock Mart Prices Fail In Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock prices attempted a modest rally early this afternoon, but the move was not enough, in its early stages, to reverse morning losses.

Trading picked up as prices stiffened, carrying volume to a pace slightly in excess of Wednesday's.

Losses ranged from fractions to an occasional point or so, while scattered gains were minor.

The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon was down 0.60 to 213.40 with industrials down 1.20, rails down 0.20 and utilities down 0.10. At the same time Dow Jones' closely watched average of 30 industrials was off 3.62 at 593.60.

Brokers said this average's decisive downward penetration of the 600 level Wednesday was among factors depressing prices. Others included the generally depressing business atmosphere, continued tax loss selling and increased wages for steelworkers starting today putting added cost strain on hard-pressed steel firms.

U.S. government bonds were unchanged to slightly higher and corporate bonds mixed.

Cosmic communications seem to have caught the fancy of a segment of the scientific community beyond any practical applications of the present. Man has long dreamed of the possibility that advanced animal life exists elsewhere in the universe. It is exciting to imagine that someday inhabitants of this planet will have the opportunity through advanced communications methods to attempt to contact any such living creature.

But the attempts already underway are destined to total failure, because they are inadequate in scope and equipment. Assuming that all conditions are favorable for space contact — that there are intelligent beings in another world, that they are similarly eager to contact other living creatures, that they have chosen our particular star galaxy to examine, that their thinking process works like ours, and that they have the same communication techniques as we — light beams or radio signals directed toward these creatures from earth will not bring back a reply.

Why? Because the hundred or so planets scientists believe contain beings of equal or superior intelligence are from 10 to 100 light years from earth. This means any light or radio signal from this planet would not reach them for at least 10 years and perhaps not for a century. Assuming they did receive the signal and returned it in kind, their answer would take just as long coming back.

All of the assumptions necessary for the fulfillment of this experiment, even a century hence, make the odds of success so mathematically remote as to label wasteful any costly attempts to connect a cosmic telephone with the resources now at hand.

Remarks To Irk a Santa

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks at a department store Santa Claus gets tired of hearing:

"Well, well, well—if it ain't the jolly Old Saint himself."

"Don't cry, junior. Just leave the lollipop in his whiskers. Mommy'll buy you another one."

"What do I want for Christmas? I told you when I was here last week. Can't you remember?"

"McGilluddy, when you go home tonight you might try practicing your chuckle in front of a mirror. It sounds pretty hollow."

"This morning we have 500 from the different kindergartens. This afternoon there are 600 from the nursery schools, and tomorrow things really start getting tough."

"I'm from the Fire Department. Do you have a certificate proving your beard has been flame-tested in accordance with Page 7, Section 2, Paragraph 3, of the city's fire laws?"

"That wuz me brother's list, Santa. Now let me read you mine, it's a lot longer."

"I know that uniform is pretty itchy, McGilluddy. But it doesn't look right for you to be scratching while you're supposed to be listening to the children."

"When he bends over to pick you up Sis, grab his beard and pull hard. Then we'll find out for sure."

"I'm the business agent for Kris Kringle Local 312. Have you got a card in good standing?"

"Hey, whiskers, which way to the men's room?"

"No, darling, he's not God, and he's not Moses. They don't wear red suits."

"P-s-s-s-t. McGilluddy, is that you? Your wife asked me to give you this grocery list. And she said to tell you that if Santa Claus drops off at any bars on the way home tonight, he'll show up for work tomorrow with a black eye."

"I wish I had nothing to do all day but sit in a warm department store and listen to children."

"Would you mind telling my son just one more time what happens to little boys who don't eat their oatmeal?"

"Sorry, but I'll have to ask you to turn in your beard, McGilluddy. The psychologist in our personnel department has decided we ought to finish the season with a midget as Santa Claus. He feels the children will have more confidence if they talk to someone more their own size."

Prof No Cuban Expert

Prof. C. Wright Mills is a professor of sociology at Columbia University. He has written a piece of press agency, "List of the Press Agency," which is so emotionally over-cooked that it becomes tasteless. The learned professor writes:

"My major aim in this book is to present the voice of the Cuban revolutionary, as clearly and as emphatically as I can, and I have taken up this aim because of its absurd absence from the news of Cuba available in the United States today."

This might have a tone of impartiality, of the research scholar objectively seeking after the truth except that Prof. Mills happens to be a member of the Castro propaganda organization in the United States which calls itself "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," which has on its list many whose names always appear on such committees. Prof. Mills spent two weeks in Cuba in August 1960. One of his conclusions is that:

"I believe another source of trouble is that many North American journalists simply do not know how to understand and to report a revolution. If it is a real revolution — and Cuba's is certainly that — to report it involves much more than the ordinary journalist's routine. It requires that the journalist abandon many of the clichés and habits which now make up his very craft. It certainly requires that he know something in detail about the great variety of left-wing thought and action in the world today."

Many journalists in the United States have spent many years of their lives studying, researching, reporting revolutions. For instance, started this task in 1917 in the city of Petrograd where the Soviet Revolution began; I lived through nearly 14 years of revolution in China. I know other reporters who have had similar experiences — if not for so long a period, perhaps more intensely in equally difficult situations. Prof. Mills has had no such experience and two weeks in Havana in August 1960 did not give it to him.

So the professor, not having knowledge or experience, resorts to a device. He will write as though he were a Cuban and as a Cuban, he will blame everything on the United States. He comes up with this learned, scholarly paragraph which I hope no editor will censor because Americans ought to see what an American professor writes when he tries to imitate a Cuban:

"The gay tourist city of Havana — in the old days it was more than a place of sin. We Cubans, like everyone else, we know all about sin, being Catholics of a sort. But in Havana, sin was also the big money nor the few, and every filthy practice of the brothel for girls 12 and 14 years old, fresh from their bohios. On the Prado and on the narrow street called The Street of Virtues, and their pimps solicited you — and then Batista and henchmen got their cut."

Then he goes on to say:

"Maybe you don't know two facts about the gambling and the whoring. A lot of that gambling money ended up in the pockets of a corrupt Cuban Government, which your Government (the United States) and some of your corporations supported and helped. Also much of it ended up in the pockets of your gangsters from Chicago and New York and Los Angeles. The money you paid for our whoring sisters . . ."

Of course, this may be some sort of special pleading but decent people do not traffic in prostitution and the Cubans would not have had this to say about their sisters but found an American professor of sociology who was willing to attribute the downfall of Cuba to the wickedness of Cuban women who took advantage of American tourists.

Prof. Mills does not apparently recognize that Soviet Russia has established a political and military base 90 miles off the coast of the United States. This country has been asked by its neighbors to protect them from Cuban attacks on them, utilizing Soviet arms.

Fidel Castro, Raul Castro, Che Guevara have time after time established their close association with the Kremlin. But all of this Prof. Mills does not know. His book tells nothing of this. His book, being press agency, says nothing that deals with anything but the necessities of his own press agency.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
(For James Marlow)

Associated Press News Analyst
For some time now the Communist Chinese have been busily spreading propaganda that they expect soon to have a nuclear weapon. One object seems to have been to apply pressure on the Soviet Communist party and government to cough up sufficient help to get Red China into the nuclear weapons club.

This may be one of a number of points of friction between Peiping and Moscow. The chances are that the Kremlin is far from happy about the prospect of Red Chinese membership in that dangerous club.

The Chinese seem to have been pressing the issue hard. Even when doubletalk is published by the Communists about their alleged unbreakable unity on all matters, Peiping's leaders seem more than a little annoyed at the Soviet attitude.

In a sense, Red Chinese membership in the nuclear weapons club could put Soviet policy at Peiping's mercy. The threat of reckless use of such weapons would be enough to give Khrushchev a few fits. It could involve the Soviet Union in a war, and a nuclear war at that.

Consensus of qualified students of the Soviet-Chinese debate is that if the Russians have anything to say about it, Peiping will remain outside the club. And it is likely that lacking significant Soviet help the Chinese would find it difficult to achieve speedy membership.

Annoyed as they might be, however, the Red Chinese are in no position to push such quarrels to a showdown as matters now stand. They would have to have strong support from inside the Soviet Communist party itself.

Moscow has given broad hints to the Chinese that it is getting rather tired of Peiping's nagging. It is rare for the official Soviet Communist newspaper, Pravda, to break into print with an ideological argument of the sort that usually is confined to the Communist family's chambers.

What it may mean is that the Russians are letting Mao Tse-tung know Moscow may feel itself moved to take some corrective action if the Red Chinese leadership persists in upsetting the Kremlin's carefully calculated

On Jupiter a year is equivalent to 12 years on earth, say astronomers. Good grief — on that planet a 60-year-old earthling would be just about ready for kindergarten!

A group of British peers urge their country to change from the pounds - shillings currency system to a decimal one. Guess they'd like to see some of those dimes and dollars they've heard so much of.

Converting to a decimal currency system would cost the British nation more than $358 million. That, in itself, is no small change!

Mao is likely to be fully aware that he could hardly hope to win out in a showdown with the Kremlin. Even inside the Red Chinese party there likely are many who support the Soviet view of how the world revolution should be carried out.

Water Expert Is Named for Maumee Area

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Defiance will be the headquarters of Roy Winkle of Columbus, engineer of the Ohio Division of Water, whose assignment to a newly created post was announced today by Herbert B. Eagon, director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

The new post is that of state water engineer for the Maumee River basin. Winkle will work under a memorandum of understanding with the 15-county Maumee Watershed Conservancy District whose directors suggested that such a program be started.

The directors have agreed to provide office space and clerical help for Winkle as part of the district's contribution to the program. Counties in the watershed district are Allen, Auglaize, Defiance, Fulton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Lucas, Mercer, Paulding, Putnam, Shelby, Van Wert, Williams and Wood.

Nine of these counties are affected by the official plan for improvement in the district. The official plan has been approved by the conservancy court, and projects that would benefit other counties in the area can be added from time to time by amendment of the official plan.

The program in the Maumee River basin carries out a policy of the Ohio Water Commission, which recommended appointment of an engineer in major river basins where (1) the Division of Water has completed an inventory of water resources and (2) the entire watershed has been organized as a legal entity.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Here are some of the more prominent appointees by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle since mid-1959 to state administrative posts, who were among the 116 unanimously confirmed Tuesday by the Ohio Senate during the special legislative session:

Cabinet—Koder M. Collison of Dayton, director of the Department of Industrial and Economic Development; James T. Welsh of Steubenville, state personnel director; Theodore J. Kauer of Wooster public works director; Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, health director.

Racing Commission—Garrett S. Claypool of Chillicothe and John Elder of Cleveland, both Democrats, and James White of Toledo and James V. Sawyer of Akron, both Republicans. (The only DiSalle appointee not confirmed by the senate was Racing Commission Chairman Harry Hoffheimer of Cincinnati, a Democrat, who now must be replaced.)

Public Utilities Commission — Miss Frances McGovern, Democrat of Akron.

Liquor Board—Creed Lester of Mount Vernon, Democrat and John Cianfionia of Columbus, Republican.

Pardon and Parole Commission —Chairman Joseph E. Donoghue of Toledo, Miss Gloria Karpinski of Cleveland and Harry C. Johnson, of Columbus, Democrats, and William Vance of Urbana and John Pruski of Columbus, Republicans.

Civil Rights Commission—Chairman Richard E. Guggenheim of Cincinnati, reappointed.

Personal debt is one of the fastest growing parts of the nation's debt structure. Family mortgage debt and consumer credit combined added to more than 176 billion dollars at the end of 1959, two - fifths greater than in 1955 and two and three - quarters times the figure for 1950.

Cosmic communications seem to have caught the fancy of a segment of the scientific community beyond any practical applications of the present. Man has long dreamed of the possibility that advanced animal life exists elsewhere in the universe. It is exciting to imagine that someday inhabitants of this planet will have the opportunity through advanced communications methods to attempt to contact any such living creature.

But the attempts already underway are destined to total failure, because they are inadequate in scope and equipment. Assuming that all conditions are favorable for space contact — that there are intelligent beings in another world, that they are similarly eager to contact other living creatures, that they have chosen our particular star galaxy to examine, that their thinking process works like ours, and that they have the same communication techniques as we — light beacons or radio signals directed toward these creatures from earth will not bring back a reply.

Why? Because the hundred or so planets

scientists believe contain beings of equal or superior intelligence are from 10 to 100 light years from earth. This means any light or radio signal from this planet would not reach them for at least 10 years and perhaps not for a century. Assuming they did receive the signal and returned it in kind, their answer would take just as long coming back.

All of the assumptions necessary for the fulfillment of this experiment, even a century hence, make the odds of success so mathematically remote as to label successful any costly attempts to connect a cosmic telephone with the resources now at hand.

Remarks To Irk a Santa

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a department store Santa Claus gets tired of hearing:

"Well, well, well—if it ain't the jolly Old Saint himself."

"Don't cry, junior. Just leave the lollipop in his whiskers. Mommy'll buy you another one."

"What do I want for Christmas? I told you when I was here last week. Can't you remember?"

"McGillicuddy, when you go home tonight you might try practicing your chuckle in front of a mirror. It sounds pretty hollow."

"This morning we have 500 from the different kindergartens. This afternoon there are 600 from the nursery schools, and tomorrow things really start getting tough."

"I'm from the Fire Department. Do you have a certificate proving your beard has been flame-tested?"

in accordance with Page 7, Section 2, Paragraph 3, of the city's fire laws?"

"That wuz me brother's list, Santa. Now let me read you mine. It's a lot longer."

"I know that uniform is pretty itchy, McGillicuddy. But it doesn't look right for you to be scratching while you're supposed to be listening to the children."

"When he bends over to pick you up Sis, grab his beard and pull hard. Then we'll find out for sure."

"I'm the business agent for Kris Kringle Local 312. Have you got a card in good standing?"

"Hey, whiskers, which way to the men's room?"

"No, darling, he's not God, and he's not Moses. They don't wear red suits."

"P-s-s-t. McGillicuddy, is that you? Your wife asked me to give you this grocery list. And she said to tell you that if Santa Claus drops off at any bars on the way home tonight, he'll show up for work tomorrow with a black eye."

"I wish I had nothing to do all day but sit in a warm department store and listen to children."

"Would you mind telling me just one more time what happens to little boys who don't eat their oatmeal?"

"Sorry, but I'll have to ask you to turn in your beard, McGillicuddy. The psychologist in our personnel department has decided we ought to finish the season with a midday Santa Claus. He feels the children will have more confidence if they talk to someone more their own size."

Prof No Cuban Expert

By George Sokolsky

Prof. C. Wright Mills is a professor of sociology at Columbia University. He has written a piece of press agency, "Listen Yankee," for Castro's Cuba which is neither sociology nor advantageous press agency. It is so emotionally over-cooked that it becomes tasteless. The learned professor writes:

"My major aim in this book is to present the voice of the Cuban revolutionary, as clearly and as emphatically as I can, and I have taken up this aim because of its absurd absence from the news of Cuba available in the United States today..."

This might have a tone of impartiality, of the research scholar objectively seeking after the truth except that Prof. Mills happens to be a member of the Castro propaganda organization in the United States which calls itself "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," which has on its list many whose names always appear on such committees. Prof. Mills spent two weeks in Cuba in August 1960. One of his conclusions is that: "I believe another source of trouble is that many North American journalists simply do not know how to understand and to report a revolution. If it is a real revolution — and Cuba's is certainly that — to report it involves much more than the ordinary journalist's routine. It requires that the journalist abandon many of the clichés and habits which now make up his very craft. It certainly requires that he know something in detail about the great variety of left-wing thought and action in the world today..."

Many journalists in the United States have spent many years of their lives studying, researching, reporting revolutions. I, for instance, started this task in 1917 in the city of Petrograd where the Soviet Revolution began; I lived through nearly 14 years of revolution in China. I know other reporters who have had similar experiences — if not for so long a period, perhaps more intensely in equally difficult situations. Prof. Mills has had no such experience and two weeks in Havana in August 1960 did not give it to him.

So the professor, not having knowledge or experience, resorts to a device. He will write as though he were a Cuban and as a Cuban, he will blame everything on the United States. He comes up with this learned, scholarly paragraph which I hope no editor will censor because Americans ought to see what an American professor writes when he tries to imitate a Cuban: "The gay tourist city of Havana — in the old days it was more than a place of sin. We Cubans, like everyone else, we know all about sin, being Catholics of a sort. But in Havana, sin was also the big money — not the few, and every filthy practice of the brothel for girls 12 and 14 years old, fresh from the barrios. On the Prado and on the narrow street called The Street of Virtues, they and their pimps solicited you — and then Bastista and his cronies got their cut."

Then he goes on to say: "Maybe you don't know two facts about the gambling and the whoring. A lot of that gambling money ended up in the pockets of a corrupt Cuban Government, which your Government (the United States) and some of your corporations supported and helped. Also much of it ended up in the pockets of your gangsters from Chicago and New York and Los Angeles. The money you paid for our whoring sisters..."

Of course, this may be some sort of special pleading but decent people do not traffic in prostitution and the Cubans would not have had this to say about their sisters but found an American professor of sociology who was willing to attribute the downfall of Cuba to the wickedness of Cuban women who took advantage of American tourists.

Prof. Mills does not apparently recognize that Soviet Russia has established a political and military base 90 miles off the coast of the United States. This country has been asked by its neighbors to protect them from Cuban attacks on them, utilizing Soviet arms.

Fidel Castro, Raul Castro, Che Guevara have time after time established their close association with the Kremlin. But all of this Prof. Mills does not know. His book tells nothing of this. His book, being press agency, says nothing that deals with anything but the necessities of his own press agency.

to get Red China into the nuclear weapons club. This may be one of a number of points of friction between Peiping and Moscow. The chances are that the Kremlin is far from happy about the prospect of Red Chinese membership in that dangerous club.

The Chinese seem to have been pressing the issue hard. Even when doubletalk is published by the Communists about their alleged unbreakable unity on all matters, Peiping's leaders seem more than a little annoyed at the Soviet attitude.

In a sense, Red Chinese membership in the nuclear weapons club could put Soviet policy at Peiping's mercy. The threat of reckless use of such weapons would be enough to give Khrushchev a few fits. It could involve the Soviet Union in a war, and a nuclear war at that.

Consensus of qualified students of the Soviet-Chinese debate is that if the Russians have anything to say about it, Peiping will remain outside the club. And it is likely that lacking significant Soviet help the Chinese would find it difficult to achieve speedy membership.

Annoyed as they might be, however, the Red Chinese are in no position to push such quarrels to a showdown as matters now stand. They would have to have strong support from inside the Soviet Communist party itself.

Moscow has given broad hints to the Chinese that it is getting rather tired of Peiping's nagging. It is rare for the official Soviet Communist newspaper, Pravda, to break into print with an ideological argument of the sort that usually is confined to the Communist family's chambers.

What it may mean is that the Russians are letting Mao Tse-tung know Moscow may feel itself moved to take some corrective action if the Red Chinese leadership persists in upsetting the Kremlin's carefully calculated political and economic campaigns on the world stage. Mao is likely to be fully aware that he could hardly hope to win out in a showdown with the Kremlin. Even inside the Red Chinese party there likely are many who support the Soviet view of how the world revolution should be carried out.

Water Expert Is Named for Maumee Area

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Defiance will be the headquarters of Roy Winkle of Columbus, engineer of the Ohio Division of Water, whose assignment to a newly created post was announced today by Herbert B. Eagon, director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

The new post is that of state water engineer for the Maumee River basin. Winkle will work under a memorandum of understanding with the 15-county Maumee Watershed Conservancy District whose directors suggested that such a program be started.

The directors have agreed to provide office space and clerical help for Winkle as part of the district's contribution to the program. Counties in the watershed district are Allen, Auglaize, Defiance, Fulton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Lucas, Mercer, Paulding, Putnam, Shelby, Van Wert, Williams and Wood.

Nine of these counties are affected by the official plan for improvement in the district. The official plan has been approved by the conservancy court, and projects that would benefit other counties in the area can be added from time to time by amendment of the official plan.

The program in the Maumee River basin carries out a policy of the Ohio Water Commission, which recommended appointment of an engineer in major river basins where (1) the Division of Water has completed an (2) the entire watershed has been organized as a legal entity.

116 DiSalle Appointments Given Nod

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Here are some of the more prominent appointees by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle since mid-1959 to state administrative posts, who were among the 116 unanimously confirmed Tuesday by the Ohio Senate during the special legislative session:

Cabinet—Koder M. Collison of Dayton, director of the Department of Industrial and Economic Development; James T. Welsh of Steubenville, state personnel director; Theodore J. Kauer of Wooster, public works director; Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, health director.

Racing Commission—Garrett S. Claypool of Chillicothe and John Elder of Cleveland, both Democrats, and James White of Toledo and James V. Sawyer of Akron, both Republicans. (The only DiSalle appointee not confirmed by the senate was Racing Commission Chairman Harry Hoffheimer of Cincinnati, a Democrat, who now must be replaced.)

Public Utilities Commission — Miss Frances McGovern, Democrat of Akron.

Liquor Board—Creed Lester of Mount Vernon, Democrat and John Clandford of Columbus, Republican.

Pardon and Parole Commission —Chairman Joseph E. Donaghy of Toledo, Miss Gloria Karpinski of Cleveland and Harry C.

County Tax Rates Set For Next Year

The 1960 real estate tax rates for Pickaway County have been set by the County Budget Commission with the exception of the Logan Elm School District.

Logan Elm School District rates will not be set until after the special election for an operating levy Tuesday.

Taxpayers in 13 areas of the county will be paying higher taxes in 1961; eight areas will have a lower tax rate and five districts' rates will remain the same.

The rate for city taxpayers will be reduced 20 cents on each $1,000 of property evaluation or from $28.15 to $27.95.

A reduction of .20 mills of a 40-mill state levy for the Korean War bonus accounts for a good percentage of county tax reductions.

COUNTY subdivision budget hearings were conducted by the Pickaway County Budget Commission consisting of Auditor Rhoades, Treasurer Robert Colville and Prosecutor Ray Davis. The tax rates were then tabulated for 28 of the 33 county subdivisions.

County subdivisions having a higher tax rate for 1960 — collectable in 1961 — are:

Westfall School District from 22.35 mills to 22.55; Darby Twp., from 23.35 to 24.10; Harrisburg School District from 27.25 to 27.40; Harrisburg Corp., from 28.25 to 28.40; Deercreek Twp., from 23.65 to 25.05; Deerfield School District from 20.05 to 24.25; Jackson Twp., from 23.15 to 23.35; Monroe Twp., from 23.30 to 23.50; Muhlentberg Twp., from 23.15 to 23.35; Darbyville Corp., from 24.15 to 24.35; Deerfield School District from 23.05 to 25.85; Miami Trace School District from 23.35 to 27.65; New Holland Corp., from 24.05 to 30.35.

Greatest increase in real estate tax is that of New Holland. The new rate is 30.35 mills as compared to last year's 24.05. Increased school taxes of that area account for 4.5 mills of the increase and 2 mills have been added to the corporation general fund.

Subdivisions having a lower rate are: Circleville Corp., from 28.15 to 27.95; Williamsport Corp., from 28.10 to 27.90; Ashville Corp., from 22.65 to 22.45; South Bloomfield from 19.65 to 19.45; Commercial Point Corp., from 21.15 to 19.55; Orient Corp., from 21.55 to 19.95; Walnut Twp., from 21.15 to 20.95; and Circleville School District (Washington Twp. overlap) from 28.55 to 28.35.

Subdivisions having the same rates are: Circleville Twp., 24.05; Teays Valley School District, 18.95; Harrison Twp., 18.65; Madison Twp., 20.75; Perry Twp., 26.65; Scioto Twp., 20.35; Wayne Twp., 24.85.

6th District Congressman Working, but Not for Long

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new Ohio congressman, Ward M. Miller, opened his office for business today—but not for long. In another month, he will again be a private citizen.

A Republican from Portsmouth, Miller was elected in an unusual political situation. He was chosen only to finish out the term of the late James Polk, a Democrat, from the day after election until Jan. 3.

Then another Republican, Representative William H. Harsha Jr., will take over the office for the next two years.

Despite his short term, Miller is determined to get some work done. He has a staff of two stenographers who start work today.

"I would have started sooner, but I had to wait for stationery with my name printed on it," he told a reporter.

"Both the girls are Republicans. One of my mandates was to fire the Democrats."

Miller laughed a bit when he made that last remark. He hasn't had a chance to fire any Democrats, and won't have. Polk's office was empty when he arrived a week ago.

"But it had my name on the door," he said. "I also received a Congressional Directory with my name printed on it in gold."

"The office had been cleared out of all the files. My desk was dusty, so I got out a towel and cleaned it."

Miller, a big, graying man with a mustache, turned 58 this week. By trade he is a real estate broker, but he once tried to make a living writing book reviews in New York during the Depression. As he sees his job here, the big responsibility is recommending young men from his district for the service academies.

The government is careful to pay him for all this, too. His term figures to about one-sixth of a year, so he gets one-sixth salary, which is $3,750. He also gets $300 for stationery, and he admits he won't write that many letters.

Miller will spend Christmas with his family back home, but will return promptly. On Dec. 30 he goes home for good.

"I have a note here saying to have my desk cleaned out by noon, Jan. 1," he said. "But I'll do it before that. I'm not going to come over here New Year's Eve and clean it out."

Most Rivers In Ohio Found To Be Usable

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Division of Water, Department of Natural Resources, said today the Tuscarawas River, the Upper Muskingum, Raccoon Creek, and the Lower Grand River are exceptions to the rule that river water in Ohio is generally usable.

The division's report said these waters were found to be spoiled by large amounts of calcium and sodium chloride from industrial waste or, as in the case of Raccoon Creek, acid mine waste.

These conclusions are contained in a booklet, "Quality of Surface Water in Ohio," which is to receive its initial distribution at the Ohio Water Management Conference here Dec. 8-9.

C. V. Youngquist, chief of the division, said the report is the most complete of its kind ever prepared in Ohio. It shows pollution of the state's surface waters in minute detail.

The report shows water in reservoirs and lakes to be of generally better quality, due to the fact that they are filled during periods of high flow when industrial or municipal wastes are diluted. But Lake Erie, which receives the total flow of many of these waste-bearing rivers, was found to be no lower than these rivers in the amount of dissolved solids.

Murder Rate Increases in 4 Ohio Cities

3 Other Metropolitan Centers See Slaying Incidence on Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Murder has been on the rise in Canton, Cleveland, Toledo and Youngstown. It has declined in Cincinnati, Columbus and Dayton.

In Akron, the murder rate has been running at about the same pace as last year.

These conclusions are contained in the latest crime report submitted by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to Attorney General William P. Rogers.

The report shows total offenses known to police in cities of populations of more than 100,000, for the first nine months of 1959 and for the same period this year.

Nationally, the FBI said, serious crime is 11 per cent higher for the first nine months of 1960 than in the first nine months of 1959.

Here are comparisons of crimes in Ohio cities over 100,000 in population for the first nine months of 1959 and 1960 (1959 figures first):

State Ruling Given On High School Diploma

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy says Ohio public school officials cannot withhold a pupil's diploma for failure to pay school fees, nor can officials withhold transfer of a pupil's credits for that reason. Under Ohio law McElroy told Mahoning County Prosecutor Thomas A. Bell, "a diploma must be granted to any student who has successfully completed the prescribed course" of study.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

There was little change in Ohio weather overnight. Snow flurries continued in most areas except in the extreme southwest along the Ohio River.

Early morning temperatures today were again in the 'Teens or low 20s, with Findlay reporting 17 under clear skies. Fair skies in the Cincinnati area permitted the temperature to drop to 20. Cleveland and Columbus, with cloudy conditions, reported 26 and 25, respectively.

Snow flurries will continue today except in the extreme south portion.

Clearing is forecast for the remainder of the state tonight except in the extreme northeast where snow flurries will continue through Friday.

Wednesday night, in the snow belt of Ohio, the area east of Cleveland, depths averaged 3 to 5 inches, with 1 to 3 inches in Greater Cleveland.

Red China To Buy Sugar from Cuba

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China agreed today to buy a million tons of Cuban sugar in 1961, for making a five-year pact signed in Havana last July. The original agreement, which stands, was for at least half a million tons of sugar a year.

The deal was announced by the New China News Agency in a broadcast from Peiping. The agency said Cuba also will get loan credits totaling 240 million rubles—worth $60 million by Communist reckoning.

A joint communique signed by Maj. Ernesto Guevara, head of Cuba's National Bank and the country's economic chieftain, and Chinese Finance Minister Li Hsien-nien pledged closer friendship, the agency said.

Santa Phone Deal Causes Malfunction

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Santa Claus—the jolly telephone kind—arrived in Dayton this week.

But Tuesday night it was questionable whether he would last until Christmas.

As a store's promotion, Santa set up a recorded message on a special telephone exchange.

Then word about the number began to spread.

A deep voice with a "ho-ho-ho" was supposed to answer.

But soon all the lines Santa had engaged were snowed under, and before long the entire Clearwater exchange was overloaded.

At times there were as many as a dozen persons talking to each other as the strained dial system started malfunctioning.

There were plenty of wags — some even getting so friendly as to suggest getting together for parties.

Persistent callers reported they got through to Santa.

Others tried to get an explanation from the Bell Telephone Co.

No one in authority was for trifling with Santa Tuesday night. But it was learned a high-level conference was planned by the phone company today.

There'll be a decision whether or not there will continue to be a Santa Claus, telephone style.

Solon Serves as Both House, Senate Member

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Rep. Robert E. Zellar, R-Muskingum, is the first person to be a member of both House and Senate in the same Ohio General Assembly. Zellar, a Zanesville attorney serving his fifth term in the Ohio House, was elected last Nov. 8 to the remaining two years of the four-year term of Sen. Tom V. Moorehead, R - Muskingum. Zellar was sworn in Wednesday by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in advance of the next regular legislative session convening Jan. 2, giving him seniority consideration for committee appointments in the 104th General Assembly.

State Ruling Given On High School Diploma

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy says Ohio public school officials cannot withhold a pupil's diploma for failure to pay school fees, nor can officials withhold transfer of a pupil's credits for that reason. Under Ohio law McElroy told Mahoning County Prosecutor Thomas A. Bell, "a diploma must be granted to any student who has successfully completed the prescribed course" of study.

TB Mobile X-ray Unit Due In County during Next Week

Free chest X-rays will be available to Pickaway Countians when the mobile X-ray unit of the Pickaway County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. visits here next week.

The unit will be in Williamsport Wednesday, Ashville next Thursday and in Circleville, December 9, 10.

The annual visit is financed through purchase of Christmas seals, now on sale. Seals have been mailed to most Pickaway Countians.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

There was little change in Ohio weather overnight. Snow flurries continued in most areas except in the extreme southwest along the Ohio River.

Early morning temperatures today were again in the Teens or low 20s, with Findlay reporting 17 under clear skies. Fair skies in the Cincinnati area permitted the temperature to drop to 20. Cleveland and Columbus, with cloudy conditions, reported 26 and 25, respectively.

Snow flurries will continue today except in the extreme south portion.

Clearing is forecast for the remainder of the state tonight except in the extreme northeast where snow flurries will continue through Friday.

Wednesday night, in the snow belt of Ohio, the area east of Cleveland, depths averaged 3 to 5 inches, with 1 to 3 inches in Greater Cleveland.

Red China To Buy Sugar from Cuba

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China agreed today to buy a million tons of Cuban sugar in 1961, for making a five-year pact signed in Havana last July. The original agreement, which stands, was for at least half a million tons of sugar a year.

The deal was announced by the New China News Agency in a broadcast from Peking. The agency said Cuba also will get loan credits totaling 240 million rubles —worth $60 million by Communist reckoning.

A joint communique signed by Maj. Ernesto Guevara, head of Cuba's National Bank and the country's economic chief, and Chinese Finance Minister Li Hsien-nien pledged closer friendship, the agency said.

Santa Phone Deal Causes Malfunction

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Santa Claus—the jolly telephone kind—arrived in Dayton this week.

But Tuesday night it was questionable whether he would last until Christmas.

As a store's promotion, Santa set up a recorded message on a special telephone exchange.

Then word about the number began to spread.

A deep voice with a "ho-ho-ho" was supposed to answer.

But soon all the lines Santa had engaged were snowed under, and before long the entire Clearwater exchange was overloaded.

At times there were as many as a dozen persons talking to each other as the strained dial system started malfunctioning.

There were plenty of wags — some even getting so friendly as to suggest getting together for parties.

Persistent callers reported they got through to Santa.

Others tried to get an explanation from the Bell Telephone Co.

No one in authority was for trifling with Santa Tuesday night. But it was learned a high-level conference was planned by the phone company today.

There'll be a decision whether or not there will continue to be a Santa Claus, telephone style.

Solon Serves as Both House, Senate Member

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Rep. Robert E. Zeller, R-Muskingum, is the first person to be a member of both House and Senate in the same Ohio General Assembly. Zeller, a Zanesville attorney serving his fifth term in the Ohio House, was elected last Nov. 8 to the remaining two years of the four-year term of Sen. Tom V. Moorehead, R - Muskingum. Zeller was sworn in Wednesday by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in advance of the next regular legislative session convening Jan. 2, giving him seniority consideration for committee appointments in the 104th General Assembly.

TV Education Is Discussed At November AAUW Session

"Operation Airborne" was the topic presented by Dr. Chalmers Hixon at the Circleville Branch of the American Association of University Women meeting Monday.

Dr. Hixon is a faculty member of Ohio State University.

The session was held in the home of Mrs. H. H. Swope, Circle Drive.

He stated that "Operation Airborne" is a new aid to education in the Midwest.

The project is a series of educational television programs ranging from elementary through college levels, originating from Purdue University. It is transmitted from an airplane circling over north-central Indiana at 23,000 feet.

The project is being sponsored by the Ford Foundation and is operating on a budget of $2,300,000, so that the best teachers and equipment are available.

Dr. Hixon showed slides which illustrated the advantages of TV education, showed procedures and costs.

He said that the program was not meant to be a cure-all for the problems of education, but merely a good tool to bring a better and more comprehensive education to a greater number of students.

Broadcasting of the programs will start January 30, 1961, and are scheduled from 9:30 a. m. until noon four days a week.

By September, 1961, programs will be broadcast five days weekly. It is hoped that adult education courses will be offered at a later date. Possibilities are unlimited.

Mrs. Alfred Johnson presided during the regular business meeting.

Mrs. Jerald Harrell, chairman of the Mass Media committee, made plans to set up a study group to see what AAUW can do to aid the Airborne Project in this area.

Another new study group, this one on the subject of mental health, is slated to start in February. Mrs. William Huber is in charge of arrangements. She plans to obtain some movies on this subject.

There will be no Branch meeting in December. The program for the January meeting will be an Art Roundtable Discussion led by Mrs. Kenneth Luna.

Special guests for the evening were George Hartman, J. Wray Henry, and Fred Goeglein, Circleville School System; and Robert Seward and Carl Bennett, from the Pickaway County Schools.

Assisting Mrs. Swope on the hostess committee were Mrs. Enid Denham, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. Wayne Smith and Mrs. Dick Tootle.

Games were played followed by refreshments served to 18 members and eight guests.

A Christmas party and gift exchange will be held December 15th at Wardell Party Home, Route 2.

Working Girls Should Maintain Femininity

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The working girl should maintain femininity above all else, says one of France's most elegant working women, Mrs. Marcel Rochas.

Men do not like brisk business women says the Parisian beauty who spends three days weekly running a perfume business inherited when her husband died five years ago.

The working girl should develop clothing along feminine lines to dispel the notion that she is a manly part of a man's world. Keeping feminine - looking after work is especially important to the married working girl, she says.

"French women do try to emphasize their feminine charm even though they must earn a living. They have no desire to impress a man with their business sense."

That is why Mrs. Rochas advises American girls not to discuss their business affairs with their husbands.

"Men like to speak about themselves so he will expect you to listen to his problems."

The lady perfume executive's schooling came from another Parisian career woman, France's first woman dentist, her mother.

How does Mrs. Rochas, now herself a mother of two teenagers, 17 and 16, suggest that American working women arrive at elegance and good taste in understated fashion?

"During the interview the French woman who looks much younger than her mid-30 years wore a simple, sleeveless, beige tweed dress and turquoise earrings."

"I like contrasts in clothes. I often choose blue because it is a tranquil color. But I wear red also, because it is dynamic. Clothes should be chosen to suit your mode. Black is wonderful for the woman who is not very elegant. It will help make her so."

It's never elegant to be overdressed, she points out. She should choose from a necklace, pin or earrings for daytime wear, not wear all three. But then, certain pieces of jewelry should not be worn too early in the day.

The perfume-maker likes perfume when she wears furs, evening or cocktail dresses but does not believe that perfume should be worn with simple pullover dresses or to the office.

Poise is important to the elegant look, she says, and this is acquired even in childhood by associates and home training. She is proof of it.

Macaroni will not stick together if a teaspoon of cooking oil is added after cooking.

Remove measuring spoons from the metal ring and place on a rust proof safety pin. Remove the needed spoon from the pin while cooking and save time in washing and drying the whole ring of spoons.

Sandwiches that are going to be put in the freezer should be wrapped individually.

Carol Young, George Tester Married in Lancaster Church

MRS. GEORGE R. TESTER

Gladioli, Fuji pompons and two - seven branch candelabra flanked the altar before the wedding of Miss Carol Lee Young and George R. Tester.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. N. Gruesser at half - past - two Sunday, November 20 in the Mills Memorial EUB Church, Lancaster.

Mrs. Albert Essex presented a program of wedding selections at the organ.

Miss Young is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Young, Lancaster. Mr. Tester is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Schwalbach, Circleville.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father.

She chose for her wedding, a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and ruffled tulle over taffeta.

The gown was fashioned with a sabin neckline and bracelet length sleeves.

The scalloped lace overskirt reaching to the hemline in front, revealed a cascade of ruffled tulle in back.

An open crown of pearls and aurora crystals held her finger tip veil of French illusion.

Her jewelry consisted of a pearl necklace and earrings, gift of the groom. She carried a white lace covered Bible topped with an arrangement of white stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Miss Roberta Smith was maid of honor. She was attired in a ballerina length gown of romance blue designed with semi - empire chantilly lace bodice, scalloped neckline and brief sleeves.

Miss Smith carried a bouquet of white Fuji pompons centered with pink carnations.

Junior bridesmaids were Roberta and Linda Young, sisters of the bride.

They wore identical gowns of candy pink nylon over taffeta. Their bouquets consisted of white Fuji pompons centered with blue carnations.

John Williams, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Frank McGraw and Larry Williams.

Mrs. Young chose for her daughter's wedding, a blue lace dress with blue and black accessories.

The groom's mother was attired in an autumn green print dress with white accessories. They wore pink and white carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the church social room. A three - tiered wedding cake centered the table.

Hostesses were Mrs. Frank McGraw, Mrs. Delbert Brock, Miss Donna Maltos and Miss Carol Bussart.

The new Mrs. Tester is a graduate of Lancaster High School. She is attending the Lancaster Branch of Ohio University. She is employed at the Big Bear Store.

Mrs. Tester is a graduate of Circleville High School. He is employed at the Circleville Water Conditioning Plant.

The couple is making a home at 114 E. Chestnut St., Lancaster.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Loaded Question!

DEAR ABBY: Our mother, age 70 eloped with the real estate dealer who sold her a lovely big home for her. He claims to be 65, but he looks much younger. No one knew she was even interested in getting married again. She had been a widow for 14 years.

Mother isn't the smartest woman in the world and we think perhaps she has become old and foolish. This man is a pretty fast talker and since he knows there is community property in this state, he put over a pretty sweet deal for himself. All mother's holdings were to be divided equally among her children when she goes, but we understand that has been changed. Is it possible for children to get a parent's marriage annulled?

CONCERNED
DEAR CONCERNED: It's possible, but you'd better talk to a lawyer about the probabilities. Are you sure your mother is "old and foolish"—or are you children just young and selfish?

DEAR ABBY: I don't claim to be an expert cook, but one thing I make that everybody raves about is spaghetti. I entertain very informally, and always include some single people who eat out a lot, so maybe that's the reason why they are so appreciative and lavish in their compliments.

Well, I had my brother and his wife here for supper last night and I served my spaghetti. My brother literally licked his fingers and said, "No wonder everyone raves about your spaghetti!" My sister-in-law said, "Don't tell me you serve SPAGHETTI to dinner guests!" I said I frequently did. She said it was considered very poor etiquette. Was she right?

SPAGHETTI COOK
DEAR SPAGHETTI COOK: She is wrong. Although you served spaghetti, it tasted like sour grape to your sister-in-law. Ignore her remarks.

DEAR ABBY: I am 13 and my mother said if I started to go steady she would tan my hide. A real cute guy by the name of Jeff asked me to go steady. I can't say "Yes," but what reason can I give him? I hate to say, "My mother won't let me." (It sounds so babyish.) Please answer soon, because he wants to know right away.

BARBARA
DEAR BARBARA: Tell him you can't go steady because your mother doesn't "approve". There's nothing babyish about respecting your parents' wishes.

DEAR ABBY: I changed doctors and now I would rather have the first one. The first one knows I went to another doctor. Could I change back without having to explain anything? I have more faith in the first one than the second one. I will not go back to the second one if I can help it.

DUMMY
Dipping a sharp knife in hot water before cutting cheese will help to give clean slides.

DEAR DUMMY: No explanations are necessary. Ask your first doctor for an appointment.

Little Change Seen Soon for Steel Mills

NEW YORK (AP) — Iron Age Magazine today said there was no indication of any significant change in steel operations until well into 1961.

"Best guess now," the weekly publication said, "is a slight pickup in January over December, a mild upturn at midyear and a substantial buildup in the second half of 1961."

The publication noted that the steel industry is entering its sixth consecutive month with operations around the 50 per cent of capacity level.

"This compares with 1958," it said, "when steel operations ranged mostly in the 50s for a period of seven months. Otherwise it is the longest period of sustained low operations since the 1930s."

"Orders in the past week have been little better than enough to sustain a 45 per cent of capacity rate of operations in major companies," the publication said. "This puts December in line to be the poorest month of the year."

"The major markets," Iron Age said, "show little resiliency for the next few months. These include appliance makers, farm implement and construction equipment makers, warehouses, construction and the railroads."

Unemployed Ranks Continue To Climb

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The ranks of Ohio's unemployed workers continued to swell as November draws to a close, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation has reported.

Claimants unemployed a week or more as of last Saturday numbered 141,642. This compares with an average of 90,936 in November 1959. The all-time high for number of claimants in Ohio since the 1939 unemployment benefits law went into effect was an average of 218,422 a week in April 1958. New claimants last week totaled 27,245.

Cartwheels Roll In

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — John Vonetes told his wife she could have all the silver dollars they took in at their restaurant. Pickings were slim for a while — until the 21st North - South muzzle-loading shoot at Fort Lee. Mrs. Vonetes said she quit counting after 300 of the cartwheels had rolled in.

Mathews admitted stealing $352,000 from the State Motor Vehicles Department vault. The judge recommended that he serve at least five years.

Ohio's Excise Tax Collections Drop

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Excise tax collections are falling behind the pace set last year, the State Tax Department says.

In the first four months of the July-1959-to-June 1960 bookkeeping year, for instance, Ohio took in $38,590,735 in excise taxes on sale of cigarettes, 3.2 beer, malt and malt beverages, wine and horse race betting.

For the same period of this fiscal year collections total $36,123,881—almost $2.5 million less. Collections for October were more than a half-million dollars less than in October 1959.

New Vote Recount Setup Is Pondered

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he's going to ask the next Ohio General Assembly to allow candidates in close elections to get free recounts.

He said he would suggest that the law be changed to provide for an automatic recount, without cost to the candidates, in elections where the results show one per cent or less difference in the number of votes received by the candidates.

DiSalle maintains the present requirement for posting $10 per precinct in a recount is "prohibitive" and that "we must guarantee to the voters that their votes will count."

Little Change Seen Soon for Steel Mills

NEW YORK (AP) — Iron Age Magazine today said there was no indication of any significant change in steel operations until well into 1961.

"Best guess now," the weekly publication said, "is a slight pickup in January over December, a mild upturn at midyear and a substantial buildup in the second half of 1961."

The publication noted that the steel industry is entering its sixth consecutive month with operations around the 50 per cent of capacity level.

"This compares with 1958," it said, "when steel operations ranged mostly in the 50s for a period of seven months. Otherwise it is the longest period of sustained low operations since the 1930s."

"Orders in the past week have been little better than enough to sustain a 45 per cent of capacity rate of operations in major companies," the publication said. "This puts December in line to be the poorest month of the year."

"The major markets," Iron Age said, "show little resiliency for the next few months. These include appliance makers, farm implement and construction equipment makers, warehouses, construction and the railroads."

Unemployed Ranks Continue To Climb

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The ranks of Ohio's unemployed workers continued to swell as November draws to a close, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation has reported.

Claimants unemployed a week or more as of last Saturday numbered 141,642. This compares with an average of 90,936 in November 1959. The all-time high for number of claimants in Ohio since the 1939 unemployment benefits law went into effect was an average of 218,422 a week in April 1958. New claimants last week totaled 27,245.

Cartwheels Roll In

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — John Vonetes told his wife she could have all the silver dollars they took in at their restaurant. Pickings were slim for a while — until the 21st North - South muzzle-loading shoot at Fort Lee. Mrs. Vonetes said she quit counting after 300 of the cartwheels had rolled in.

RECORD HAUL — Earl H. Mathews of Marmet, W. Va., is shown in Charleston, W. Va., on drawing a 1-to-10-year sentence for pulling off the biggest single theft in the state's history. Mathews admitted stealing $352,000 from the State Motor Vehicles Department vault. The judge recommended that he serve at least five years.

Ohio's Excise Tax Collections Drop

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Excise tax collections are falling behind the pace set last year, the State Tax Department says.

In the first four months of the July-1959-to-June 1960 bookkeeping year, for instance, Ohio took in $38,590,735 in excise taxes on sale of cigarettes, 3.2 beer, malt and malt beverages, wine and horse race betting.

For the same period of this fiscal year collections total $36,123,881—almost $2.5 million less. Collections for October were more than a half-million dollars less than in October 1959.

New Vote Recount Setup Is Pondered

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he's going to ask the next Ohio General Assembly to allow candidates in close elections to get free recounts.

He said he would suggest that the law be changed to provide for an automatic recount, without cost to the candidates, in elections where the results show one per cent or less difference in the number of votes received by the candidates.

Ashville News Report

By Mrs. Arthur Deal Jr.
Phone YU 3-4117

The Ashville Women's Civic Club will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday in the Ashville Methodist Church for its annual Christmas Tea. Each member is asked to bring guests and is to notify the committee on how many guests she will be bringing.

The program will be "Christmas Arrangements" by Mrs. S. G. Measamer. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Rife, and Mrs. Glenn Rogers.

The Scioto Valley Post No. 5067 Veterans' of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will hold a bake sale at 9:30 a. m. Saturday at Mercer's Garage. Advance orders may be given until Friday noon by calling Mrs. Gerald Kocher, phone YU 3-2942 or Mrs. Gale Sawyer, phone YU 3-3322.

A Cub Scout Pack meeting was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 22 at the Ashville Evangelical United Brethren Church. It was announced that a Blue and Gold Banquet was being planned for an evening in February with all the boys and their families and leaders attending.

After the parents and leaders held a brief meeting the dens then presented the following program: Flag ceremony by Den 1 and skit by Den 6, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Younkun. STEVEN Herron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Herron of Little Walnut, became a new member of the pack.

Robert Cline, Scoutmaster, awarded arrow points to Mike Schiff, who received one gold arrow, Johnny Purcell, one gold arrow, Ricky Scarberry, one gold and two silver, and Bobby Hines, one gold and one silver. Gale Sawyer received the Wolf badge.

An impressive candlelight ceremony was performed by Scoutmaster Cline for five boys entering the ranks of Boy Scouting. Those completing their Webelos training under the guidance of Larry Sunderland, and receiving their Bebelos badges were: Jimmy Deal, Gary Rife, Robert Barr, Richard Petty and Monty Sunderland. At the close of the program a moment of silent prayer was observed for Dr. Loy C. Schiff, an ardent fan and loyal supporter in the many community projects including the scouting.

Mrs. Leona Gillaspie of Zionsville, Ind., visited over the weekend with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brewer and Cathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Welsh entertained to Thanksgiving dinner: Robert Welsh, Billy, Bobby, and Patsy; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fee and Nancy; Mrs. William Fee and Harold Bickel.

The Pickaway County Republican Club met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Elmer Siegel. More than 50 members and guests were present. Guest speaker was Mrs. Frank Henson, who chose the subject, "I'm Tired".

A short business meeting was held. The December meeting will be held on the 19th. Time and place will be announced at a later date.

Assisting hostesses were: Mrs. Elmer Payne, Mrs. Stanley Beckett, Mrs. A. D. Pettibone, Mrs. Oran Hines, Mrs. Vause Blake, Miss Lucille Blake, and Miss Gladys Vause.

THE Reston Funeral Home made the following ambulance runs this past week: Monday, Nov. 21, took Edna Coons to White Cross Hospital and Mrs. Cook, niece of Eva Shannon to University Clinic; Tuesday, Nov. 22, took Harold O'daffer to Columbus Medical Center to have cast removed and returned to his home and took Warner Hedges to Mercy Hospital; Wednesday, Nov. 23, took Mrs. Jack Philo, Goose Pong Pike, to Mercy Hospital; Thursday, Nov. 24 returned Mrs. Mabel McBee's daughter home from Doctor's Hospital and took G. D. Brown to Grant Hospital; and Friday, Nov. 25 took Mrs. Wright Noecker's mother to Crites Rest Home and Francis Hagens to University Hospital.

Spending the Thanksgiving holidays with family and friends in Akron were Sgt. and Mrs. William Trimble and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tosca, Sally and Gary spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettibone and family in Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Marion and Mr. and Mrs. Max Marion spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meachem of Newark.

Martha Mary Brinker of Wilmington spent from Wednesday through Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brinker.

Beginning Dec. 1 the Ashville Community Post No. 730 of the American Legion will have Christmas trees for sale at the Legion Home on East Main St. in Ashville.

The Junior Luther League of the First English Lutheran Church along with parents of members will have a bowling-swing party this Sunday at the Columbus Jewish Center. They are asked to meet at the church no later than 5:30 p. m.

This past week, boys on the varsity Ashville basketball team selected their co-captains for the 1960-61 year. The boys considered the following in the selection of the co-captains. Grades should be average or better, the boys must be respected and have leadership abilities, and they must have a good team attitude. The two chosen were Paul Frase and Jim Gregg.

The first games of the season will be held this Friday and Saturday nights at the Ashville School Auditorium. Friday they will meet Darby and Saturday West Jefferson.

THE Ashville Methodist Men's Breakfast will be held this Sunday morning in the church basement at 8 a. m. All men of the church are urged to attend and bring a guest.

The Ashville Women's Civic Club are once again selling their fresh pecans done up in pound packages. They have just received this fresh shipment from the South in time for the holiday baking. You may call for them at the home of Mrs. Curtis Cromley's or is unable to do so you may call her by dialing YU 3-2071 and they will be delivered to you.

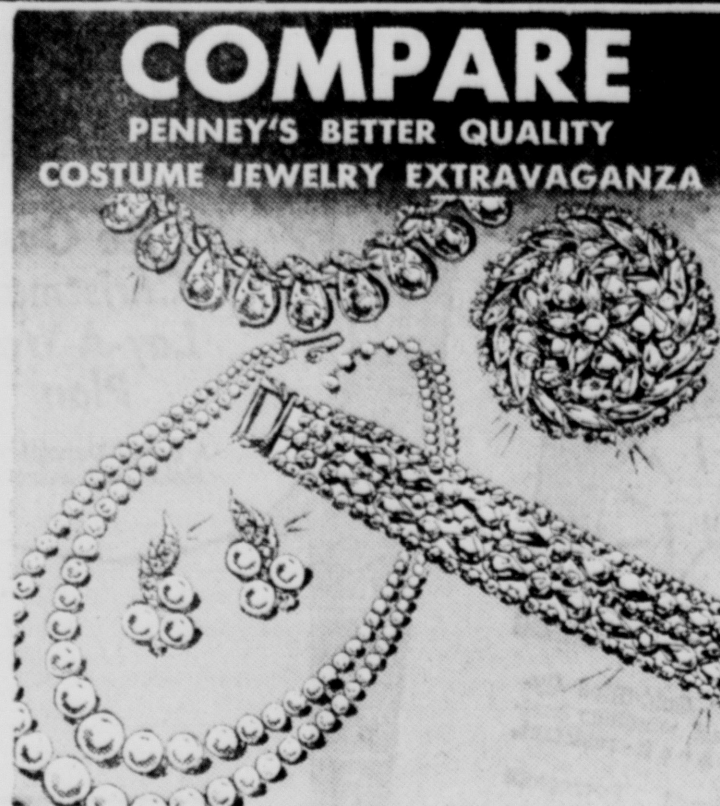

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boone of Lynchburg, Va., and former residents of the Ashville community, visited with friends and relatives this past week. On Thanksgiving Day a family dinner was held in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone. Five of their daughters and families were able to attend and be with their step-mother and father for the holiday.

The term terra cotta is derived from the Italian and means "Fired earth". It was used extensively as a structural decoration by the early Greeks when it was produced with ceramic glazes as well as natural finishes.

How Do Circleville Schools Compare?

How does the Circleville School system stack up with other school systems in Ohio?

That question can be answered by the citizens of Circleville if they know the facts about our school system.

As part of the Statehouse Conference on Education, the local steering committee has asked the Board of Education and school administration to furnish many facts about the Circleville School system.

The facts are listed below, along with a "profile" of a 2,100-pupil district compiled by the state. It should be remembered that the local school system has about

2,820 pupils as compared with 2,100 pupils in the "profile". It also should be remembered that the "profile" is an average of several school districts that spend MORE than the state average for schools, and that a "profile" of run-of-the-mine districts would likely show less facilities, curriculum and salaries.

47 Ohio Postmasterships

To Be Filled by Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats are expected to start replacing 47 Ohio Republican postmaster nominees soon after President-Elect Kennedy enters the White House.

The Republican men and women were all nominated by President Eisenhower. Then Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, blocked all but four of them on the ground that the nominations were political.

The remaining four names came in too late for him to investigate, Young said.

Some Ohioans already are beginning to apply for postmaster jobs, in letters to Sens. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, and Young.

Postmastership patronage procedure is as follows:

White House Social Whirl To Be Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Any plans Mrs. John F. Kennedy has for increasing social activity in the White House will have to be postponed for six months.

That advice from her doctor dashes some of the enthusiastic predictions that came only a week ago from Mrs. Kennedy's new social secretary.

Letitia Baldrige had reported Mrs. Kennedy would be making plenty of news and innovations in the White House starting about three months after the birth of her baby.

But the unexpectedly early arrival of John F. Kennedy Jr. last Friday changes the picture.

Dr. John W. Walsh, who brought baby John into the world four days ago, wants Mrs. Kennedy to take it easy for six months.

He explained that means she'll have to "cut down—but not eliminate" some of the White House social activities.

Because of its huge population growth, Red China reportedly is resettling great masses of people in underdeveloped areas of Sinkiang and Inner Mongolia.

will be made by the congressman from the district concerned if the congressman is a Democrat. The congressman gives the name to Ohio senators, since the confirmation of postmasters is purely a Senate matter.

If the congressman is a Republican, the Ohio senators will obtain recommendations from local Democrats.

In all cases, the nominee must pass a Civil Service test with a sufficiently high mark.

Here are the 47 Ohio nominees for postmaster by President Eisenhower who will be replaced by Democrats:

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Appetites shift from turkey to beef this week.

That, at least is the anticipation of supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Their weekend specials are topped by a variety of beef cuts—chuck, pot, round, rump and rib roasts, round and flank steaks and tongue.

Hams and pork loins and shoulders and lamb legs also are on the list of top-advertised meats.

Meat prices are reported climbing as farmers hold back animals for more feeding. Hog prices reached a 1960 high last week.

Choice steers are $2.50 a hundred pounds above October.

Fish specials along the Eastern Seaboard are codfish, haddock and halibut.

Egg prices dipped this week,

the large whites declining from two to eight cents a dozen.

New arrivals on the vegetable market include South Carolina green cabbage, Cuba watermelons, Texas spinach and carrots, Florida Chinese and savoy cabbage, world-beater and Anaheim peppers, cranberry beans and tomatoes, Arizona Broccoli, Maine katahdin potatoes, and leafy greens from the South.

Best vegetable buys are broccoli, broccoli rabe, brussels sprouts, cabbage cauliflower, cucumbers, endive, escarole, green onions, lettuce, mushrooms, medium yellow onions, parsnips, Eastern potatoes, radishes, spinach and sweet potatoes.

Anise, green peas, tomatoes, best peppers and plain parsley are expensive.

Emperor grapes, cranberries and apples are the best buys among fruits. Avacados, Spanish Florida tangelos and tangerines are costly.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Appetites shift from turkey to beef this week.

That, at least is the anticipation of supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Their weekend specials are topped by a variety of beef cuts—chuck, pot, round, rump and rib roasts, round and flank steaks and tongue.

Hams and pork loins and shoulders and lamb legs also are on the list of top-advertised meats.

Meat prices are reported climbing as farmers hold back animals for more feeding. Hog prices reached a 1960 high last week. Choice steers are $2.50 a hundred pounds above October.

Fish specials along the Eastern Seaboard are codfish, haddock and halibut.

Egg prices dipped this week,

the large whites declining from two to eight cents a dozen.

New arrivals on the vegetable market include South Carolina green cabbage, Cuba watermelons, Texas spinach and carrots.

Florida Chinese and savory cabbage, world-beater and Anaheim peppers, cranberry beans and tomatoes, Arizona Broccoli, Maine katahdin potatoes, and leafy greens from the South.

Best vegetable buys are broccoli, broccoli rabe, brussels sprouts, cabbage cauliflower, cucumbers, endive, escarole, green onions, lettuce, mushrooms, medium yellow onions, parsnips, Eastern potatoes, radishes, spinach and sweet potatoes.

Anise, green peas, tomatoes, best peppers and plain parsley are expensive.

Emperor grapes, cranberries and apples are the best buys among fruits. Avacados, Spanish Florida tangelos and tangerines are costly.

Ohio Pen Escapee Held in Michigan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 29-year-old escapee from the Junction City branch of Ohio Penitentiary has been captured in Detroit, Mich., authorities report. He is George Lee Hoesy, sentenced in 1958 and serving a 15-year term for burglary and grand larceny in Washington County. He escaped last July 2 from an outside work crew.

Millie Perkins Takes Leap From Anne Frank to Presley

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Millie Perkins may have seemed like a fragile little bird, but she has changed. She's doing her first film in more than two years, and she credits her own outbursts for the return to work.

From Anne Frank to Elvis Presley's girl friend appears a long distance in movie roles. The time between those two parts seems an eternity to Millie.

"I finished 'The Diary of Anne Frank' in August of 1958," she recalled. "When the picture was released in April of 1959, I toured the country for two weeks and later toured Europe for a month. 'Aside from that, I have done nothing. Absolutely nothing. I merely waited for the studio to find something for me to do. They turned down outside pictures that I was offered because they argued that I was 'special.' They said I couldn't do just anything."

"Finally, I got fed up. I went in to see the bosses and I shouted and—I screamed and I carried on. I told them I didn't think I was 'special,' that I wanted to act and I wanted them to let me out of my contract."

Her performance brought about a change. Whether the 20th Century-Fox execs were impressed with her fire or whether her arguments themselves were convincing, she got a role. But once again the studio learned of her independence.

"They wanted me to do 'Tess of the Storm Country,' a 10-day picture," she said. "I didn't think I could or should do a 10-day picture after working five months on 'Anne Frank.' So I refused and was promptly put on suspension."

She was taken off because the studio wanted her and Dean to go to the Soviet Union on a junket. The junket was later called off, but she remained on salary and was given the role as Presley's steady sweetheart in "Wild in the Country." So finally she's back at work.

Cincy Cops Curtail Blue Law Pickups

CINCINNATI (AP) — Enforcement of the Sunday closing laws will take a back seat for police in Cincinnati, says the city safety director, Oris Hamilton.

Hamilton said Tuesday he expects no more blue law arrests soon unless on a warrant signed by a private citizen.

Hamilton's view came after three merchants were convicted in police court of violating Sunday closing laws.

Judge Daniel C. Handley fined the three $25 and costs, then remitted the fines.

The judge scolded police for selective enforcement and said, "Let the police go the length and breadth of Cincinnati and cite all violators, then let's see what public opinion does."

Lacks License

EAST WINDSOR, Conn. (AP) — A 76-year-old woman, injured in the collision of her car and a truck, admitted she was driving without a license.

She told state troopers she had no license because she was too old and authorities "wouldn't give me one."

Passenger Diesel Runs Out of Fuel

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — A Frisco Railroad passenger train ground to a halt 12 miles west of Springfield Tuesday. A short time later an embarrassed crew told passengers there was no fuel for the diesel engines.

Engineer R. Cochran of Tulsa, Okla., got word to Springfield and was dispatched to the stalled train.

A railroad spokesman said the train arrived at St. Louis more than an hour late. He said the employee responsible for filling the tanks at Oklahoma City failed to do so.

Parakeets eat almost constantly and cannot live very long without food.

U.S. To Shoulder Bigger Burden To Reach Its Goal

Editor's Note: Following is the second in a series of three articles on the meaning and cost required for America to reach necessary goals in the future.

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—"The nation is in great danger. Communist aggression and subversion threaten all that we seek to do both at home and abroad."

With that warning, the President's Commission on National Goals has underscored its call to Americans to shoulder still heavier burdens of armament and foreign aid in the 1960s.

In a soberly phrased section titled "Goals Abroad," the commission's report—placed this week in the hands of both President Eisenhower and President-elect John F. Kennedy—recommends this posture for the United States in the coming decade:

Stay stronger than the Soviet Union "at whatever cost"; hold firm in Berlin and wherever else the cause of democracy is menaced.

But strive constantly for peaceful solutions; stand ready to negotiate "on any reasonable basis"; and seek international control of nuclear weapons — "disarmament should be our ultimate goal."

The report proposed no sharp deviations from the present policies of the Eisenhower administration in the military or diplomatic areas, except in the output of money and effort.

It moved into highly controversial ground however, in the realm of trade, tariffs and foreign aid. The commission took an internationalist view on issues over which legislators are bound to clash in the 87th Congress as they have in the past several congresses.

The bipartisan, 11-member commission of leaders in industry, science, labor, education, and public affairs, called for these measures to bolster the economy of the West under cold war conditions:

1. A "substantial increase" in foreign aid, shared equitably by the larger free nations.

The growth rate of the underdeveloped countries would be doubled—from 2 per cent to 4 per cent annually—within five years, the commission said.

This can be accomplished if the efforts of the poorer nations themselves are bolstered by an 8 per cent increase in foreign investment, both public and private, by the United States and other industrialized countries.

2. A step-by-step reciprocal lowering of tariffs and import quotas by the United States and other industrial powers.

Two provisions which protect domestic industry from lower-cost foreign competition, the "peril point" and "escape clause" sections of the Trade Agreements Act, may have to be changed because they prevent further lowering of U. S. tariffs on some commodities, the commission said.

"We should seek this goal while safeguarding the national economy against market disruption, against destructive competition as a result of grossly lower unit labor costs, and to preserve national defense," the commission said. In some rare cases, it said, tariffs might be increased.

Yet the commission recognized that even gradual tariff cuts would hurt some American industries and cities. It recommended government help to cushion the blow.

3. Correction of this country's deficit in international payments, which caused a net outflow of $3.5 billion of capital last year, perhaps more in 1960.

On this point, a major current goal of the Eisenhower administration, the commission said: "At least three steps are essential to rectification: A much higher export surplus; larger participation of other developed nations in assistance to the underdeveloped; and more equitable sharing of defense costs among the Allies."

Tito Plans Change in Constitution

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Communist party experts are drafting a new constitution for Yugoslavia. President Tito says it is intended eventually to modify the directing role of the national government in the country's economy.

Yugoslav Marxists say this will be a step toward the purported goal of Marxist communism—the withering away of the state apparatus.

Yugoslav ventures along these lines have aroused the wrath of the Kremlin and the drafting of such a constitution seems likely to widen the Soviet-Yugoslav cleavage over party theory.

The constitution seems intended to combine two basic features of Yugoslav-type communism—worker councils serving as managing bodies of factories, and local self-government through communes. The state will serve as the coordinating agency.

Communes, as the Yugoslavs seem to intend them, are looked upon as a means of decentralizing state authority, and thus are far removed from the sort of "people's communes" established by Communist China as a means of heightening central government control.

U.S. To Shoulder Bigger Burden To Reach Its Goal

Editor's Note: Following is the second in a series of three articles on the meaning and cost required for America to reach necessary goals in the future.

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—"The nation is in great danger. Communist aggression and subversion threaten all that we seek to do both at home and abroad."

With that warning, the President's Commission on National Goals has underscored its call to Americans to shoulder still heavier burdens of armament and foreign aid in the 1960s.

In a soberly phrased section titled "Goals Abroad," the commission's report—placed this week in the hands of both President Eisenhower and President-elect John F. Kennedy—recommends this posture for the United States in the coming decade:

Stay stronger than the Soviet Union "at whatever cost"; hold firm in Berlin and wherever else the cause of democracy is menaced.

But strive constantly for peaceful solutions; stand ready to negotiate "on any reasonable basis"; and seek international control of nuclear weapons — "disarmament should be our ultimate goal."

The report proposed no sharp deviations from the present policies of the Eisenhower administration in the military or diplomatic areas, except in the output of money and effort.

It moved into highly controversial ground however, in the realm of trade, tariffs and foreign aid. The commission took an internationalist view on issues over which legislators are bound to clash in the 87th Congress as they have in the past several congresses.

The bipartisan, 11-member commission of leaders in industry, science, labor, education, and public affairs, called for these measures to bolster the economy of the West under cold war conditions:

1. A "substantial increase" in foreign aid, shared equitably by the larger free nations.

The growth rate of the underdeveloped countries would be doubled—from 2 per cent to 4 per cent annually—within five years, the commission said.

This can be accomplished if the efforts of the poorer nations themselves are bolstered by an 8 per cent increase in foreign investment, both public and private, by the United States and other industrialized countries.

2. A step-by-step reciprocal lowering of tariffs and import quotas by the United States and other industrial powers.

Two provisions which protect domestic industry from lower-cost foreign competition, the "peril point" and "escape clause" sections of the Trade Agreements Act, may have to be changed because they prevent further lowering of U. S. tariffs on some commodities, the commission said.

"We should seek this goal while safeguarding the national economy against market disruption, against destructive competition as a result of grossly lower unit labor costs, and to preserve national defense," the commission said. In some rare cases, it said, tariffs might be increased.

Yet the commission recognized that even gradual tariff cuts would hurt some American industries and cities. It recommended government help to cushion the blow.

3. Correction of this country's deficit in international payments, which caused a net outflow of $3.5 billion of capital last year, perhaps more in 1960.

On this point, a major current goal of the Eisenhower administration, the commission said: "At least three steps are essential to rectification: A much higher export surplus; larger participation of other developed nations in assistance to the underdeveloped; and more equitable sharing of defense costs among the Allies."

Tito Plans Change in Constitution

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Communist party experts are drafting a new constitution for Yugoslavia. President Tito says it is intended eventually to modify the directing role of the national government in the country's economy.

Yugoslav Marxists say this will be a step toward the purported goal of Marxist communism—the withering away of the state apparatus.

Yugoslav ventures along these lines have aroused the wrath of the Kremlin and the drafting of such a constitution seems likely to widen the Soviet-Yugoslav cleavage over party theory.

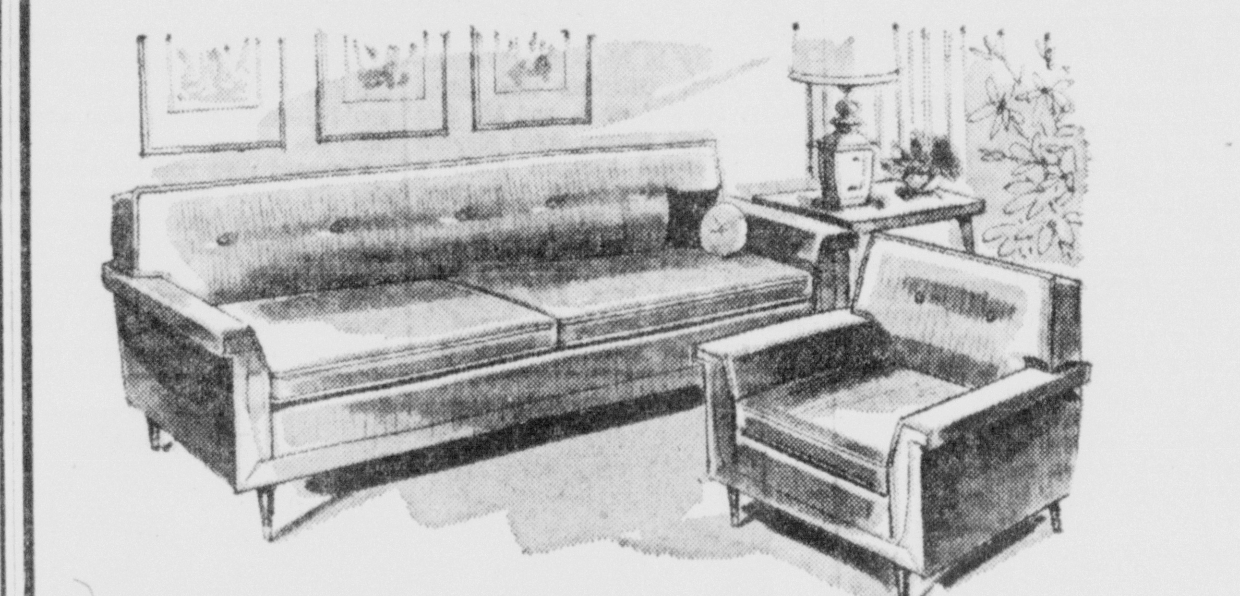

The constitution seems intended to combine two basic features of Yugoslav-type communism—worker councils serving as managing bodies of factories, and local self-government through communes. The state will serve as the coordinating agency.

OSU Goes to OU To Open Ohio College Cage Season

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With the 1960-61 debut of Ohio State's NCAA champion Buckeyes the headline, the collegiate basketball campaign gets underway in earnest for Ohio schools tonight with no fewer than 16 games on tap. Virtually all are openers for the teams involved.

Coach Fred Taylor's Bucks figures to get more than a good workout. They invade Athens to take on Ohio University's Mid-American Conference defending champs in the dedication game for O. U.'s new 6,800-seat gymnasium.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati tests its muscles minus Oscar Robertson and under a new head coach, Ed Jucker, for the first time. The Bearcats, hopeful of maintaining the national prominence attained beyond the All-America Robertson, entertain lesser light Indiana State.

Other Mid-American loop clubs opening along with Ohio U. are Miami, at home to Heidelberg, and Bowling Green, which is host to Hillsdale (Mich.). In the only game involving an Ohio team Wednesday night Hillsdale dropped a 73-65 nod to Findlay. It was the Oilers' second win in two nights as they beat Malone of Canton 78-62 Tuesday.

Other features find perennially tough Dayton at home against Manchester (Ind.); John Carroll traveling headlong into the buzz-saw Bonnies of St. Bonaventure, who are expected to be among the nation's best; 1959-60 national defensive king Wittenberg, on its home court where it has been high unbeatable the past couple of years, facing Transylvania (Ky.); and Ashland, a 90-points-plus average team last season that opened by scoring 119 against Bluffton Monday, visiting Youngstown's Penguins.

Ohio State, with four starters back from last year's Big Ten and national titlists, including All-America and Olympics star Jerry Lucas, of course is being touted as a likely candidate to succeed itself.

Tonight's fray should furnish some evidence of whether Lucas, Larry Siegfried, John Havlicek and Mel Nowell can click as well without Big Joe Roberts or Dick Furry in the forefront. In place of the 6-6 Roberts and 6-7 Furry, who helped Lucas immeasurably in rebounding last season, Taylor will use either—or both—Bobby Knight or Richie Hoyt. Both are sharp shooters but lack the height their predecessors had.

Ohio U. counters with three of last season's regulars, forwards Bunk Adams, Larry Kruger and Bill Whaley, and with a 6-8 sophomore at center in Stacy Bunton. How well Bunton replaces rugged Howard Joliff, who forsook his final year of college ball to join the pro Los Angeles Lakers, could decide the Bobcats' fate this year.

It won't be the first encounter between Lucas and Adams. As high schoolers, they met in the same

Fremont, Cincy Coaches Voted Tops in Ohio

Smith, Misali Gain Top Football Honors For 1960 Season

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bob Smith of Fremont St. Joseph's 10-game winners today was awarded the Ohio Class A coach of the year honor in the Associated Press football poll.

His selection followed that of Paul Misali of Cincinnati Purcell as Class AA coach of the year. The 41-year-old Smith, with a 98-35-7 record of St. Joe since he started there in 1946, led his squad to the school's first perfect season. He had an 8-1 mark a year ago, and had five other one-loss campaigns.

Smith won handily over Blair Irvin of Covington, Paul Drotovick of Dennison St. Mary, Ray DeCola of New Albany, Andy Urbanic of Dillonvale, Al Carrino of Columbus Grove and John Santillo of Lowellville, all of whom made big bids for the laurels.

Featuring a short punt offensive formation, Smith has led St. Joe to five undisputed Sandusky Bay Conference championships and tied for the title twice.

Smith is a graduate of Norwalk St. Paul (1937), and now defunct De Sale College of Toledo in 1941. He coached two years at Norwalk, and spent two years in the Army during World War II before going to the Fremont school in 1946. He's married and has five children.

Cincinnati Purcell's Misali winner of the Class AA award, has four children. But Misali, 31, hit the jackpot in his first year as head coach. He took over this year after five years as backfield coach under Jim McCarthy, who resigned after a 13-year reign. Misali is a Purcell graduate, and played on the school's first "clean" team in 1944. He injured a knee as a freshman at Xavier, halting his playing career, but spent two years with the Army in Korea before going to Purcell as reserve coach in 1953.

Leo Strang of Massillon, the 1959 winner, tied for second with Sandusky's Earle Bruce in the Class AA voting. Close up were Jim Eby of Dayton Colonel White, Tony Mason of Niles, Lou Juillierat of Troy, Chuck Stobart of Gallipolis, Mel Knowlton of Alliance and George Vlerebome of Zanesville.

Although the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association will make the actual selections, a sentiment-finding vote by sports writers coaches and officials favored Mason as the Northern all-star game mentor and Juillierat as the "Rebel" leader. The all-star game is scheduled at Canton in mid-August.

Bruce was runnerup to Mason upstate, and Eby was second and Misali third in the south, in the all-star game voting.

Hurricane To Help Tigers Start Cage Season Friday

The Hurricane of Wilmington will blow into town Friday night to help the Circleville High School Tigers launch their 1960-61 basketball season.

A torrid struggle may be in the making, for the Hurricane is easily rated one of the top favorites in the SCO this season. Wilmington Coach Jack Gill has several returning lettermen and will be off from the start to take a chunk of the league crown.

Hurricane veterans include Jim Kidd, Keith Gregory, Ron Claiborne and Dwight Wallace, all capable scorers last year. Claiborne gives Wilmington height underneath by standing at about 6-4.

Last season Wilmington featured a hard-to-handle fast break and probably will utilize the same capers tomorrow night. Last year the Tigers split with the Hurricane, winning the test here and losing on the road.

COACH Dick Snuffer's Tiger crew will retaliate with a young, but hustling outfit. Sam Weller, standing about 6-3, is the only veteran back, but several varsity newcomers are set to make an all out effort.

New faces on the varsity include Bruce Barnes, a senior playing his first year of basketball. The 6-footer can get off the floor and he owns a deadly jump shot.

Two sophomores battling for positions are Clesson Thomas and Garold Dade, both up from last year's reserve team. Dick Kline, Jimmie Wellington and Luther Johnson are three juniors expected to see heavy action.

According to Coach Snuffer, his starting lineup probably will not be known until Friday night. He said about seven players are hustling for the berths.

The evening of basketball is slated to open at 7 p. m. when Coach Jack Weikert's reserve squad tangles with the young Hurricane. The varsity tilt will follow at about 8 p. m.

Circleville wades on into the cage schedule Saturday night with a trip to Lancaster for a battle with the Golden Eagles. The following Friday the locals go to Washington C. H. for a league skirmish and then on to Chillicothe the following night.

AN EARLY forecast on the SCO this season would have to rate Wilmington and Greenfield as top contenders due to their returning lettermen who have plenty of cage knowledge. Bulwarks for Greenfield probably will be Roger Grooms and Lee Morehead, both big and strong and with abundant court experience behind them.

Circleville may furnish some surprises, along with Washington C. H., Hillsboro, Pleasant View and Franklin Heights. Miami Trace, entering varsity competition for the first time this season, also could develop as the cage agenda rolls on.

Pleasant View will have practically its same varsity back from last year. The team has played together since junior high days.

Washington C. H., like Circleville, lost several starters last season. However, Coach Gene Millard always manages to fash-

Small Boy Is Killed In Shotgun Accident

TROY, Ohio (AP)—A shotgun blast struck and killed a Miami County boy in his home Wednesday night. Officials said Mike Terry, about 4 or 5, and his five brothers and sisters were playing with a loaded shotgun when it went off, striking Mike. A brother, Timmy, suffered possible powder burns and was in extreme shock. Officials said the children's parents—Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Terry—were in the house when the incident occurred, and when the incident occurred.

Bobcats Voted As Top Small Team in U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three teams with 10-0 records headed the Associated Press small college football final poll today, but Ohio University was named champion on the strength of a stronger schedule.

The Ohio Bobcats, coached by William R. Hess, took half the eight first-place votes submitted by selectors from the eight NCAA districts. Lenoir-Rhyne of Hickory, N.C., was second and Humboldt (Calif.) State was third.

The Bobcats, from Athens, Ohio play most of their games within the Mid-American Conference, but defeated Dayton 28-0, Boston University 36-6 and Xavier of Ohio 6-0.

The top teams, with won-lost records in parentheses (10 points for first, 9 for second, etc.)

1. Ohio U. (10-0) 65
2. Lenoir-Rhyne (10-0) 46
3. Humboldt St. (10-0) 34
4. Whitworth (9-0) 32
5. West Chester (9-0) 30
6. Bowling Green (8-1) 28
7. Louisiana Tech (8-2) 26
8. Hillsdale (9-1) 19
9. Muskingum (9-0) 16
10. Iowa St. Teachers (9-1) 15

Dayton University Cage Star Quits

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Stan Greenberg, a junior guard who figured prominently in the University of Dayton's 21-7 basketball record last season, has quit the team.

Greenberg, a 6-foot-3 performer who was sought by many colleges while playing high school ball in Philadelphia, said he might return to the squad next year.

The 21-year-old Greenberg is president of the UD student council and carries a 3.5 average. He said he has too many outside activities and doesn't have the time for basketball this season.

Dayton University Cage Star Quits

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Stan Greenberg, a junior guard who figured prominently in the University of Dayton's 21-7 basketball record last season, has quit the team.

Greenberg, a 6-foot-3 performer who was sought by many colleges while playing high school ball in Philadelphia, said he might return to the squad next year.

The 21-year-old Greenberg is president of the UD student council and carries a 3.5 average. He said he has too many outside activities and doesn't have the time for basketball this season.

Fremont, Cincy Coaches Voted Tops in Ohio

Smith, Misali Gain Top Football Honors For 1960 Season

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bob Smith of Fremont St. Joseph's 10-game winners today was awarded the Ohio Class A coach of the year honor in the Associated Press football poll.

His selection followed that of Paul Misali of Cincinnati Purcell as Class AA coach of the year.

The 41-year-old Smith, with a 98-35-7 record of St. Joe since he started there in 1946, led his squad to the school's first perfect season. He had an 8-1 mark a year ago, and had five other one-loss campaigns.

Smith won handsily over Blair Irvin of Covington, Paul Drozdovick of Dennison St. Mary, Ray DeCola of New Albany, Andy Urbanic of Dillonvale, Al Carrino of Columbus Grove and John Santillo of Lowellville, all of whom made big bids for the laurels.

Featuring a short punt offensive formation, Smith has led St. Joe to five undisputed Sandusky Bay Conference championships and tied for the title twice.

Smith is a graduate of Norwalk St. Paul (1937), and now defunct De Sale College of Toledo in 1941. He coached two years at Norwalk, and spent two years in the Army during World War II before going to the Fremont school in 1946. He's married and has five children.

Cincinnati Purcell's Misali winner of the Class AA award, has four children. But Misali, 31, hit the jackpot in his first year as head coach. He took over this year after five years as backfield coach under Jim McCarthy, who resigned after a 13-year reign.

Misali is a Purcell graduate, and played on the school's first "clean" team in 1944. He injured a knee as a freshman at Xavier, halting his playing career, but spent two years with the Army in Korea before going to Purcell as reserve coach in 1953.

Leo Strang of Massillon, the 1959 winner, tied for second with Sandusky's Earle Bruce in the Class AA voting. Close up were Jim Eby of Dayton Colonel White, Tony Mason of Niles, Lou Juillerat of Troy, Chuck Stobart of Gallipolis, Mel Knowlton of Alliance and George Vlrebome of Zanesville.

Although the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association will make the actual selections, a sentiment-finding vote by sports writers, coaches and officials favored Mason as the Northern all-star game mentor and Juillerat as the "Rebel" leader. The all-star game is scheduled at Canton in mid-August.

Bruce was runnerup to Mason upstate, and Eby was second and Misali third in the south, in the all-star game voting.

Hurricane To Help Tigers Start Cage Season Friday

The Hurricane of Wilmington will blow into town Friday night to help the Circleville High School Tigers launch their 1960-61 basketball season.

A torrid struggle may be in the making, for the Hurricane is easily rated one of the top favorites in the SCO this season. Wilmington Coach Jack Gill has several returning lettermen and will be off from the start to take a chunk of the league crown.

Hurricane veterans include Jim Kidd, Keith Gregory, Ron Claiborne and Dwight Wallace, all capable scorers last year. Claiborne gives Wilmington height underneath by standing at about 6-4.

Last season Wilmington featured a hard-to-handle fast break and probably will utilize the same capers tomorrow night. Last year the Tigers split with the Hurricane, winning the test here and losing on the road.

COACH Dick Snouffer's Tiger crew will retaliate with a young, but hustling outfit. Sam Weller, standing about 6-3, is the only veteran back, but several varsity newcomers are set to make an all out effort.

New faces on the varsity include Bruce Barnes, a senior playing his first year of basketball. The 6-footer can get off the floor and he owns a deadly jump shot.

Two sophomores battling for positions are Clesson Thomas and Garold Dade, both up from last year's reserve team. Dick Kline, Jimmie Wellington and Luther Johnson are three juniors expected to see heavy action.

According to Coach Snouffer, his starting lineup probably will not be known until Friday night. He said about seven players are hustling for the berths.

The evening of basketball is slated to open at 7 p. m. when Coach Jack Weikert's reserve squad tangles with the young Hurricane. The varsity tilt will follow at about 8 p. m.

Circleville wades on into the cage schedule Saturday night with a trip to Lancaster for a battle with the Golden Eagles. The following Friday the locals go to Washington C. H. for a league skirmish and then on to Chillicothe the following night.

AN EARLY forecast on the SCO this season would have to rate Wilmington and Greenfield as top contenders due to their returning lettermen who have plenty of cage knowledge. Bulwarks for Greenfield probably will be Roger Grooms and Lee Morehead, both big and strong and with abundant court experience behind them.

Circleville may furnish some surprises, along with Washington C.H., Hillsboro, Pleasant View and Franklin Heights. Miami Trace, entering varsity competition for the first time this season, also could develop as the cage agenda rolls on.

Pleasant View will have practically its same varsity back from last year. The team has played together since junior high days.

Washington C. H., like Circleville, lost several starters last season. However, Coach Gene Millard always manages to fast-

Small Boy Is Killed In Shotgun Accident

TROY, Ohio (AP)—A shotgun blast struck and killed a Miami County boy in his home Wednesday night. Officials said Mike Terry, about 4 or 5, and his five brothers and sisters were playing with a loaded shotgun when it went off, striking Mike. A brother, Timmy, suffered possible powder burns and was in extreme shock. Officials said the children's parents—Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Terry—were in the house when the incident occurred.

Reichelderfer Passes 600

Vaughn Reichelderfer, helping push his Reid's Insurance team into first place in the Wednesday Independent league at Prairie Lanes, roared to a 616 scratch series last night.

Reichelderfer's top game was 215 and with handicap he zipped to a 664 for the set, just one pin short of Phil Gordon's season high of 665.

It marked the second week in a row Reichelderfer emerged high series man. His effort helped the insurance team to replace Blue Ribbon Dairy in first place.

Reid's took high single game with a 957 and wrapped up the three-game set with 2,817 pins.

The standings:

Team	Points
Reid's Insurance	32
Blue Ribbon Dairy	31
Reiston Purina	27
V.F.W. Club	25
Eagle's Lodge	24
Goodmore Farms	19

Yates Buick Team Still Holds First

Yates Buick retained its hold on first place in the Women's Wednesday Matinee bowling league at Circle D.

High single game yesterday was rolled by Annie Eddy of third place Barnhill's Dry Cleaning. The best series was turned in by Mary Betts of Circleville Hardware.

Top team single game was a 694 by Rexall Drugs. Circleville Hardware captured set honors with 2,021 pins.

The standings:

Jim Brown Near 1,000-Yard Mark

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland fullback Jimmy Brown needs only 88 yards in rushing gains against the last-place Washington Redskins here Sunday to hit the 1,000-yards-gained figure for the third consecutive season.

And if he can average 140 yards in each of the Browns' last three games, the former Syracuse star can better his last season's total of 1,329.

The National Football League's leading ground-gainer, Brown is unlikely to underestimate the lowly-Redskins. It was this team which in 1958, Brown's biggest year, held him to a net of only 12 yards in 11 tries for a 1.1 average—his poorest afternoon that entire season.

Playoffs for the National Industrial Basketball League will be held in Denver, March 19.

Tallest basketball players for the New York Tuck Tapers are Leroy Wright of Rockdale, Tex., and Bob Clarke of West Pittston, Pa. Both are 6-feet-9.

for 1960-61 at the Deercreek school is on rebuilding.

Coach Chester has three lettermen available for a nucleus and possibility of added strength by the consolidation of Atlanta with Williamsport. The letter winners are Ronnie Jacobs who earned a monogram last season at Pickaway, Brooks McCoy who lettered at Atlanta and Donnie Steinhauser, a two-year varsity man for the Deers.

In 1959-60 Coach Chester's force posted a fine 15-8 record. This season to date the Deers have won one of five tests during their early task of finding the right combination.

COACH Chester's varsity roster includes seniors Ronnie Jacobs and Wayne Atwood; juniors Donnie Steinhauser, Brooks McCoy, Aaron Harper, Marty Noble, Richard Gerhardt and Douglas Palmer.

Team managers are Gene Clark and Jerry Cornwell. Varsity cheerleaders are Carol Sue Watts, Vivian Gifford, Jo Williams, Joyce Williams, Joyce Christopher and Kay Trump. Handling the reserve yell making are Deana Reynolds, Patty Kempton, Sue Rihl, Sandy Clark and Sue Remy.

Jackson, heading into its second season under Coach Paul Hoskins, has six lettermen to bolster Wildcat fortunes. The veterans are Bob Eitel, Larry Eitel, Gary Thompson, Marion Guseman, Benny List and Bob Martindale, all seniors.

Bob Eitel, at 6-2 will be playing the center position in an effort to cash in on his accurate left hand jump shot. Brother, Larry, along with Guseman, will be at forwards. Larry hits well from the corners and Guseman is a mainstay in cleaning the bankboards.

Holding down guard positions for Coach Hoskins are Thompson and Martindale. Both are rather small, but make up for it with speed and good set shooting.

BENNY List and Ronnie Clifton are expected to see plenty of action due to their solid shooting from around the post and Sam Cornwell serves as an able replacement for the center post with his fade-away jump shot.

A promising crop of sophomores are back from last year to go along with the freshmen cagers who finished second in the Pickaway County Junior High league last season.

The squad roster, in addition to the letter winning seniors are: juniors Sam Cornwell and Joe Good; sophomores Ronnie Clifton, Clark Maughmer, Leonard Sines, Francis Dear and Russell Chester; freshmen Larry Beard, Dwight Whaley, Morris Bays, Jeff Eitel, Edgar Martindale and Bill Pontious.

Team managers are Paul Atwood and Steve Kovaleski. Cheerleaders are Martha Pontious, Sandra Smith, Judy Allen, Donna Mowery, Judy Huston and Sharon Bushee.

So far this season the Wildcats have won one and lost three, but hope to move to the win side of the ledger as the cage schedule progresses.

Playoffs for the National Industrial Basketball League will be held in Denver, March 19.

Tallest basketball players for the New York Tuck Tapers are Leroy Wright of Rockdale, Tex., and Bob Clarke of West Pittston, Pa. Both are 6-feet-9.

Mothers Fete Junior High Grid Force

Members of the Circleville Junior High football team were honored at a carry-in banquet last night at CHS.

The banquet was sponsored by mothers of the players. A large group was on hand to pay tribute to the undefeated Tiny Tiger gridgers.

Speaker for the evening was Carl Benhase, head football coach at Circleville. He complimented the 7th and 8th graders on their fine season and reminded them that their gridiron careers are just starting.

Coach Benhase told the boys to shoot high for future accomplishments as football players at CHS. He said the players should strive to be good students in school, good CHS citizens and good athletes.

BENHASE also thanked the Circleville Booster Club for its part in the junior high program this year, the first of its kind in Circleville. Uniforms and equipment this season came through the efforts of the Boosters.

The coach expressed much pleasure in seeing the fine turnout of parents last night. He said they play a vital part in promoting junior high football.

Ralph Starkey, president of the Booster Club and assistant junior high coach, served as toastmaster. He and head coach Paul Sarchet introduced their players and gave brief comments on the season. Junior high cheerleaders also were introduced.

Also on hand were directors of the Booster Club who came as special guests. They included Charles Hart, Snap Ankrom, Joe Bell, Clark Martin and Paul Smallwood.

Scioto Team Gets Share of Honors

Scioto Building & Loan, tied for first place in the Roundtown Women's League at Prairie Lanes, swept most individual and team honors this week.

Ruby Chester and Etta Julian, both of the Scioto team, had 481 and 416 series respectively. The team had a 723 high game and a top 1,961 in the series.

High individual single game was tossed by Helen Styers of Jenkins Sunoco. Pauline Bond of Scioto had a 167 and Charlene Anderson of Long's Restaurant a 165.

The standings:

Circle D Gains In Monday Loop

Circle D crept within a half game of first place Moore's Store in Early Monday Nite bowling this week.

Circle D downed General Electric two of three games while Moore's dropped two to last place Guernsey Dairy.

Bowlers passing the 200 mark were Ed Bohr 220, Mike Brown 209, Bob Moon 204 and Bob Callihan 201 and 200. Passing the 530 series tally were Mike Brown 582, Bohr 560, Moon 565, Callihan 575 and Don Watson 540.

or Foreign Wars also protected

the break with a 65-54 verdict over Walnut Twp.

The other test of the evening saw Dick's Hardware take McFarland Equipment, 63-37.

The Orient - Elks game was a cliff hanger all the way. The score was deadlocked, 43-43, at the end of the third quarter and it took a top effort by Orient to pull it out in the final stages.

DICKIE Melvin and Delbert Neff, two former Scioto Twp. aces, smacked 18 points each to lead the Orient charge. Teammate Hedger added 16.

Scioto Elks stayed in the tilt behind 24 points by Bill Johnson and 15 by Charlie Johnson.

For VFW Dick Hoover netted 18 points to go along with Jim McConnell's 17. Ray Reinhold hit 17 for Walnut and B. Barr got 15 more.

VFW held a lead most of the way, but never by a comfortable margin.

The hardware team had four men in double figures. Acord showed the way with 16, Roger McConnell had 11 and Myers and Tedrow 10 each.

Cecil Galloway's 15 tallies were high for McFarland's. Brigner added 10 to the cause.

League games on the schedule

tonight are Hunsicker's Elevator vs Ohio National Guard, Blue Ribbon Dairy vs Scioto Elks and Dick's Hardware vs Hanley's Cafe.

Scioto Team Gets Share of Honors

Scioto Building & Loan, tied for first place in the Roundtown Women's League at Prairie Lanes, swept most individual and team honors this week.

Ruby Chester and Etta Julian, both of the Scioto team, had 481 and 416 series respectively. The team had a 723 high game and a top 1,961 in the series.

High individual single game was tossed by Helen Styers of Jenkins Sunoco. Pauline Bond of Scioto had a 167 and Charlene Anderson of Long's Restaurant a 165.

The standings:

	W	L
Scioto Bldg & Loan	18	12
Dairy Bar	18	12
The Herald	17	13
Van's Sandwich Shop	14	16
Jenkins Sunoco	12	18
Long's Restaurant	11	19

Circle D Gains In Monday Loop

Circle D crept within a half game of first place Moore's Store in Early Monday Nite bowling this week.

Circle D downed General Electric two of three games while Moore's dropped two to last place Guernsey Dairy.

Bowlers passing the 200 mark were Ed Bohr 220, Mike Brown 209, Bob Moon 204 and Bob Callihan 201 and 200. Passing the 530 series tally were Mike Brown 582, Bohr 560, Moon 565, Callihan 575 and Don Watson 540.

A PROFITABLE FRANCHISE OPPORTUNITY with GENERAL MOTORS in CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

Perhaps you have read of the action already taken by General Motors Corporation to advance GMC Truck & Coach Division in the growing field of commercial transportation.

This program—known at GMC as "Operation High Gear"—is the greatest engineering, manufacturing and quality control program ever undertaken in the industry.

It already has produced new, cost-cutting concepts of vehicle design in heavy duty highway tractors and the time is approaching when this program will culminate in a full line of the most advanced trucks developed over the past twenty years—½ ton pickups to giant 60-ton haulers.

To the able and aggressive businessman qualifying for this opening there lies ahead an exciting product, a profitable relationship and a secure future. Write or phone today for further details.

or Foreign Wars also protected back with a 65-54 verdict over Walnut Twp.

The other test of the evening saw Dick's Hardware take McFarland Equipment, 63-37.

The Orient - Elks game was a cliff hanger all the way. The score was deadlocked, 43-43, at the end of the third quarter and it took a top effort by Orient to pull it out in the final stages.

DICKIE Melvin and Delbert Neff, two former Scioto Twp. aces, smacked 18 points each to lead the Orient charge. Teammate Hedges added 16.

Scioto Elks stayed in the tilt behind 24 points by Bill Johnson and 15 by Charlie Johnson.

For VFW Dick Hoover netted 18 points to go along with Jim McConnell's 17. Ray Reinhold hit 17 for Walnut and B. Barr got 15 more.

VFW held a lead most of the way, but never by a comfortable margin.

The hardware team had four men in double figures. Acord showed the way with 16, Roger McConnell had 11 and Myers and Tedrow 10 each.

Cecil Galloway's 15 tallies were high for McFarland's. Brigner added 10 to the cause.

League games on the schedule

tonight are Hunsicker's Elevator vs Ohio National Guard, Blue Ribbon Dairy vs Scioto Elks and Dick's Hardware vs Hanley's Cafe.

Ashville Booster Club Is in Mill

A group of interested persons met Tuesday at the Ashville High School to plan the formation of an Ashville High School Athletic Booster Club.

It was decided to carry the project through and an organization meeting will be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the high school gym.

Views on Television - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)— Television networks, or at any rate their affirmative -thinking, optimistic institutions .

They talk up their programs as if each were a masterpiece, and then, when one proves definitely to be a dud, they beat drums for its replacement without even bothering to announce the demise of the old show.

The end of the first 13-week period of the TV season will soon be upon us, and although many shows have been bought for 26 weeks or re-signed by sponsors, a number are bound to disappear.
Some fatalities have already been learned, mostly by checking schedules to find out what current shows are occupying time periods in which new shows have been set.

The new year will bring several changes to the NBC schedule.
"Riverboat," which has barely managed to keep afloat during a season and a half will be dropped in favor of "The Americans," an hour-long Civil War series.

"Dan Raven," a better-than-average police action series, and
"The Westerner," a better-than-average horse opera, will depart from the Friday night lineup after 15 weeks, leaving 90 minutes which the network will fill with three half-hour situation comedies. They are "Happy," a pedestrian little show which caused little interest as a summer replacement, "Happy Family," and

"The Nanette Fabray Show," based on her own family life. In addition, Gene Rayburn's "Do Re Mi," a daytime audience participation show with ratings troubles, will be replaced by another fun-and-games program called "Say When," a title inviting invidious comment.

ABC is either standing pat on its schedule or isn't saying. But if anything is likely to disappear there, it is "The Islanders" an adventure series. Some others — including "Harrison and Son" and "The Roaring Twenties"—are being watched nervously.

CBS will drop "The Witness," a show based on a good idea but with mechanical troubles, and will be replaced, in a bold, original move, by an hour-long series called "Gunslinger." "Person-to-Person," now opposite the highly rated "Untouchables," is in a very shaky condition, although there is a chance it may be moved to a better spot—say opposite NBC's "Meet the Press"
Sunday evening. There is also talk of moving "The Ann Sothern Show" out of competition with Eliot Ness, where it has suffered a grievous loss of audience.

U S Investors Take New Look At Latin Area

Visiting Governors
Show Some Caution,
Lots of Enthusiasm

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — American investors are taking a new look at Latin America. They've poured nearly $9 billion into it. And stockholders of American companies with about $1 billion invested in seized, Castro-like anti-Americanism rumbles today in other Latin lands.

But both the present and incoming administrations are on record as favoring more aid, private and governmental, to Latin development wants and needs.

Twenty-eight U.S. governors, just back from looking over investment possibilities in Argentina and Brazil, express views on the risk today that range from enthusiasm, caution, plain bearish.

American manufacturers already have stepped up their expenditures this year. The Department of Commerce reports they are pouring nearly $75 million more into Brazil this year for new plant and equipment. In Argentina expenditures have risen to $70 million this year, more than double the 1957-58 average.

Total U.S. investments are put at $1.3 billion in Brazil and $517 million in Argentina.

American governors were obtained by Alan Hathaway managing editor of the Long Island paper, Newsday.

On one thing they seem agreed—Argentina and Brazil have more than four million square miles high in potentials for agriculture and hydroelectric power and rich in mineral deposits. In both countries the areas are waiting and anxious to be developed.

The questions private American investors will be asking the governors: Are Latin-American investments in general safe from future prospects of returns greater than the foreseeable risks?

Here are the views of some of the governors as copyrighted by Newsday. First, the enthusiastic ones:

Arizona, Paul Fannin: "On investment, I feel there is a great potential, and Brazil has the greater material resources." California, Edmund G. Brown: "I would recommend that industry invest in either country." Colorado, Stephen McNichols: "Looks like a sound opportunity."

But a note of caution is sounded by some.

"Investment advisability is predicated on stability in government." Kansas, George Docking: "Would depend on whether an in-trained people to come down to live and supervise." Minnesota, pressed with the difference between the historic development and institutions of North and South America, and I wonder why this is so."

Opinions leanings toward the bearish:

Iowa, Hershel C. Loveless: "I do not believe that as a governor I could recommend investment outside continental United States."

And Utah, George D. Clyde: "There are too many people who want something for nothing and (have) a lack of interest in real hard work."

Daring Excuse

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — The county selective service board here hears all kinds of excuses from registrants explaining how they lost their draft cards. But this new one turned up recently:

"I was parachute jumping," said the registrant. "And my billfold fell out of my pocket. The card was in the billfold."

Mrs. Klumpp's Execution To Be Delayed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said yesterday he would stay the Dec. 9 execution of Mrs. Edythe Margaret Klumpp for 30 days to permit study of her slaying case.

The governor made his announcement shortly after the Ohio Supreme Court fixed the death date following refusal of the U. S. Supreme Court to consider her appeal in the murder of her lover's estranged wife, Mrs. Louise Bergen.

Ohio's Pardon and Parole Commission now will consider the case and make a recommendation to the governor.

His decision will determine whether Mrs. Klumpp, 42, twice divorced mother of four, dies in Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair or has her sentence modified to life imprisonment. She now is in Marysville Reformatory for Women.

She was convicted of the first-degree murder of Mrs. Bergen, 32, in a Cincinnati park on Oct. 30, 1958. Mrs. Klumpp admitted at her trial that she burned her victim's body at Lake Cowan in Clinton County. Later she blamed the slaying on Mrs. Bergen's estranged husband, William.

Mrs. Klumpp, a part-time sewing teacher and Bergen had been living together for several months before the murder.

U.S. Investors Take New Look At Latin Area

Visiting Governors
Show Some Caution,
Lots of Enthusiasm

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — American investors are taking a new look at Latin America. They've poured nearly $9 billion into it. And stockholders of American companies with about $1 billion invested in seized, Castro-like anti-Americanism rumbles today in other Latin lands.

But both the present and incoming administrations are on record as favoring more aid, private and governmental, to Latin development wants and needs.

Twenty-eight U.S. governors, just back from looking over investment possibilities in Argentina and Brazil, express views on the risk today that range from enthusiasm, caution, plain bearish.

American manufacturers already have stepped up their expenditures this year. The Department of Commerce reports they are pouring nearly $75 million more into Brazil this year for new plant and equipment. In Argentina expenditures have risen to $70 million this year, more than double the 1957-58 average.

Total U.S. investments are put at $1.3 billion in Brazil and $517 million in Argentina.

American governors were obtained by Alan Hathaway managing editor of the Long Island paper, Newsday.

On one thing they seem agreed—Argentina and Brazil have more than four million square miles high in potentials for agriculture and hydroelectric power and rich in mineral deposits. In both countries the areas are waiting and anxious to be developed.

The questions private American investors will be asking the governors: Are Latin-American investments in general safe from future prospects of returns greater than the foreseeable risks?

Here are the views of some of the governors as copyrighted by Newsday. First, the enthusiastic ones:

Arizona, Paul Fannin: "On investment, I feel there is a great potential, and Brazil has the greater material resources." California, Edmund G. Brown: "I would recommend that industry invest in either country." Colorado, Stephen McNichols: "Looks like a sound opportunity."

But a note of caution is sounded by some.

"Investment advisability is predicated on stability in government." Kansas, George Docking: "Would depend on whether an in-trained people to come down to live and supervise." Minnesota, pressed with the difference between the historic development and institutions of North and South America, and I wonder why this is so."

Opinions leanings toward the bearish:

Iowa, Hershel C. Loveless: "I do not believe that as a governor I could recommend investment outside continental United States."

And Utah, George D. Clyde: "There are too many people who want something for nothing and (have) a lack of interest in real hard work."

Daring Excuse

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — The county selective service board here hears all kinds of excuses from registrants explaining how they lost their draft cards. But this new one turned up recently:

"I was parachute jumping," said the registrant. "And my billfold fell out of my pocket. The card was in the billfold."
